CABINET PLACES STILL WORRY HOOVER

ROGERS SEES FEAR OF SENATE AS BAR TO AN ABLE CABINET

(Special To The News)
NEW YORK, Feb. 27. — No wonder Hoover can't get a cabinet, big men won't take it, for they won't take a chance on a senate insult.
If he has ever earned more than a senator, he is in league with big business. If he ever drove a Standard Oil truck, or was a bookkeeper in a Morgan, he is in league with monopolies.
If he is independently rich, he is in league with the devil. But if he has never done anything, and been a financial failure at that, he will pass the senate as a brother, and every time Hoover finds a man of that type he is a Democrat.
And that's another slant rule, you can't use even an able man from the other party, that would revert to democracy, and not politics.
Yours, WILL.

Herbert Hoover In Dilemma As To His Cabinet

President-Elect Hoover Having Tough Sledding In Cabinet Selections

MUST ANNOUNCE NAMES MONDAY

Stir Is Occasioned As William Mitchell, Minnesota Democrat, Is Considered

By GEORGE K. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—Herbert Hoover is experiencing tough sledding in the completion of his cabinet personnel, according to all indications today.
From behind the veil of secrecy that the President-elect has thrown about his operations, there leaked reliable reports today that there are still three yawning vacancies in the state. These involve the attorney-generalship, the secretaryship of agriculture, and the secretaryship of commerce.
Hoover in Dilemma

It isn't enough that there aren't enough candidates. The Capital, as inauguration day draws near, is fabulously running over with cabinet material. Some of them have come to see the inauguration. But others have been drawn to Washington to be on the spot should there be any eleventh hour lightning cracking up and down Pennsylvania avenue. There was ominous muttering in Republican quarters on Capitol Hill today over the reports that Mr. Hoover was toying with the idea of offering the attorney-generalship to a Democrat—William D. Mitchell of Minnesota, now solicitor general of the United States. The fact that a Democrat is even being mentioned for the post indicates that the President-Elect is in a pretty serious dilemma. He wants a lawyer of eminence for the post who at the same time is a sincere and constitutional dry. Senator Borah (R.) of Idaho, and Justice Harlan (R.) of the Supreme Court have already declined to consider it, according to the most authoritative information.

Robinson Wanted
Three names were said to be still on the President-elect's desk today for the agricultural portfolio: G. C. Glover, Wisconsin dairyman farmer; L. J. Tabor, of Ohio, master of the National Grange; and ex-Gov. Samuel R. McKelvie of Nebraska.
Mr. Hoover was represented today as still hopeful of persuading Henry M. Robinson, Los Angeles economist and banker, to take a cabinet post—the secretaryship of commerce, with the understanding that he would become secretary of the treasury upon the retirement of Secretary Mellon, which is expected not later than mid-way of the Hoover term.
Robinson has been doing a considerable amount of cabinet "scouting" for Hoover. His friends assert he has performed these duties as a matter of friendship for the President-elect.

MERCER, Pa., Feb. 27.—Word was received here today from Washington, D. C., that Ben Perry of Farrell had been appointed as postmaster of the Farrell office. The appointment was made by Congressman T. C. Cochran of the 28th Pennsylvania district.
There were nine candidates in the field for the office. Perry succeeds the late Wallace Scowden. Perry is a former publisher of the Farrell News, and is widely known in the Farrell-Sharon district.

ROMANCE SPIKED BY ROYAL EDICT

Royal disapproval has balked the romance of Greta Garbo, film star, and Prince Sigurd, son of the Duke of Upland, and son of Crown Prince Gustav of Sweden. Ever since the arrival of the actress in Stockholm, some weeks ago, she has frequently been seen in the company of the prince. After a dramatic scene in the royal household, Greta went into seclusion, 'tis said, in a little Swedish village, and Sigurd, who is 22, was forbidden to see her.

NO ANNOUNCEMENT OF WEDDING DATE

Not Known How Long Lindbergh Will Remain At Morrow Estate In Cuernavaca

(International News Service)
MEXICO CITY, Feb. 27.—A throng of curious persons hovered about the American Embassy here today, hoping to catch a glimpse of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and his fiancée Miss Anne Spencer Morrow. After two days of romantic seclusion at the Morrow country home in Cuernavaca, the betrothed couple arrived here last evening with Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, wife of the ambassador. The trip was made by automobile with the famous aviator driving.
Mrs. Morrow was forced to return to fulfill social engagements here which included a dinner party last night at which both Col. Lindbergh and his bride-to-be were present.
How long Col. Lindbergh will remain here is not definitely known. It is expected that he will stay at least a day or two, but it is possible that he may leave at any time to resume his airport inspection flight to California.
Speculation continued today as to whether the formal announcement of the date and place of the couple's marriage would be made before or after the colonel's departure.

Flying Musketeers To Attend Wedding Of Col. Lindbergh

By DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The whirling of aeroplane propellers will blend with the pealing of wedding bells at the nuptials of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh and Anne Morrow.
For those flying musketeers of the air—The Quiet Birdmen of America—will be there, with all motors going strook.
Lindbergh is one of the most active members of this secret fraternal organization of aviators.
Plans Secret
And these flying lads are secret. No pedestrian has been known to "crash" one of their irregular meetings. Perhaps that's how "Lindy" learned to keep his lips sealed concerning a certain romance.
Like the fictional musketeers the motto of the flying fraternity is "All For One, and One For All."
Before hopping off from Long Island for Mexico City with a wedding ring in his flying jacket, Lindbergh sent the word around, according to the story in circulation today, that he expected his comrades to attend the ceremony. Formal invitations would (Continued On Page Two)

MEADVILLE POLICE HUNT FOR MYSTERIOUS SNIPER; WOMAN BADLY INJURED

(International News Service)
MEADVILLE, Pa., Feb. 27.—Authorities here today were searching for a "sniper" who last night fired at two women through windows of their homes, hitting one.
The wounded woman is Mrs. Michael O'Connor, 60, who was struck as she sat at a window of her home by a bullet that pierced her right lung. Physicians at the Meadville hospital said her condition was critical today.
Mystery In Shooting
Another bullet crashed through a bathroom window in the home of Joseph Pazzyk. It embedded itself in a wall after passing within a few inches of the head of Pazzyk's daughter, Josephine.
Both bullets apparently were fired from a 22 caliber rifle, and police believed that each could have been fired from the public square. They were considering the possibility that the shots had been fired from a moving auto.
One clue suggested was that the shots had been the work of a disgruntled man who had attempted to get work on a section gang of which Pazzyk was boss. But police admitted this did not explain the shooting of Mrs. O'Connor.

Filibusters Strangle Seventieth Congress Legislation Halted

Seventieth Congress To Pass Out Monday With Much Not Accomplished

Every Indication That Filibuster Storm Will Descend On Senate Thursday

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Seventieth Congress appeared to be dying on its feet today with every likelihood of being strangled by filibusters during its final hours.
The legislative record apparently has been written, with the possible exception of a few non-controversial measures. Beginning tomorrow, there was every indication, a storm of filibusters will sweep the senate to last until the graves of the vice-president and the speaker toll the end of another congress. Administration leaders, aware of this threat, were concentrating their efforts of enacting as many bills as possible before the anticipated verbal marathons bring congressional business to a halt.

Mayor's Forces Win In Chicago

Aldermanic Election Takes Place Under Police Guard

DETECTIVE SQUADS CRUISE OVER CITY

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—Mayor William Thompson's forces today remained in control of the city council following yesterday's aldermanic election. The so-called "reform" faction won only a few seats. Leaders of the latter group blamed inclement weather for their poor showing.
Thompson's hardest blow was the loss of one of his floor leaders, although thirty-three aldermen who have supported his administration during the last two years were re-elected for another two years.
The election, to the surprise of many, went off quietly. To the police, however, the day of calm was no surprise. They were unusually well prepared for trouble, and, in the words of Deputy Commissioner John Stege, "gangland knew it."
Detective bureau squads, their cars bristling with machine guns and repeating rifles, mounted for action, cruised through the "danger zones" in the Latin sections of the city and districts where gangland strife has been rampant.

Previous informations had charged that Cauffman had received thousands of dollars from Rager for "protection." The grand jury will consider the charges next week according to Whitted.

Flood Stage Is Reached By State Streams

Allegheny And Monongahela Overflow Banks At Pittsburgh

CENTRAL SECTION OF STATE IS HIT

Melting Snow And Rains Bring Streams Up Fast, Damage In Ohio

(International News Service)
The flood menace, with its ever present spectre of loss of life and property damage, hovered over Pennsylvania today while raging rivers and streams in all parts of the state threatened to leave their banks. One life already has been lost, and in the Pittsburgh area north side streets were flooded, train tracks covered with water and basements in the Pittsburgh business district flooded with water.
The Allegheny and Monongahela rivers reached flood stage, 33 feet, at Pittsburgh at nine a. m. and the Ohio at the point the rivers meet was slowly rising.
Floods in State
Throughout central Pennsylvania melting snow and rain flowed into the turbulent streams, with the Schuylkill river 10 feet above normal and the Susquehanna also due to rise two or three more feet.
Low-lying sections of the Schuylkill in eastern Pennsylvania also presented a flood menace.
The lone death reported so far occurred when an 11-year-old boy tumbled into the Chartiers creek at Canonsburg and was drowned in the flood waters.

Flood in Pittsburgh.
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—The rising ice-laden waters of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers which flow into the Ohio at Pittsburgh, flooded portions of the north side here today, menacing boats on the Allegheny river as an ice gorge broke at Brilliant near Aspinwall.
The waters, rising at the rate of a half foot an hour, reached flood stage at 9 a. m. and may reach a peak of 26½ feet, according to W. S. Brotzman, weather forecaster.
Streets Inundated
Four north side streets were inundated, while cellars of buildings in portions of the Golden Triangle, Pittsburgh's business district, were flooded. The Baltimore & Ohio tracks on the north side were covered with water.
The breaking of the gorge at Brilliant pumping station sent motor-cyclists hurrying to the scene to warn house boat dwellers to seek safety from the raging torrents.
One death was attributed to flood waters in this section, a boy plunging to his death in the swollen waters of Chartiers creek at Canonsburg.
Flood stages are not expected in the upper rivers, Brotzman declared. (Continued On Page Seven)

The golfer looks at the winter sky with hope in his heart and a gleam in his eye, as he fingers his bag of clubs. He thinks of the days that are coming soon, the golfing delights of July and June, and the time he will have with the dabs. He wistfully sighs as he sees the snow, and he wishes the ice and the frost would go, and the sun would come out in force; he longs for the heat of the summer sun, and the chances of making a hole in one, as he travels the sodded course. He thinks of the holes he will play again, of the strokes he will cut off his score and then, he sighs for the time to play, but his eye lights up as he counts the weeks, and a flush spreads over his golfing cheeks, it's forty-five today.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—A varied array of legislation passed through the House of Representatives today before that body adjourned for the week to reconvene next Tuesday at noon.

Members of the lower branch of the Assembly heard statements by Representative Walker, Clearfield, in which he pleaded for more state aid for certain school districts and the presentation of a resolution urging the legislature to cause inquiries of the school situation to be made in some of the rural districts of the state.

He read a letter from county school authorities in Clearfield county in which it was charged that some of the rural school buildings are in such poor shape that owners of fine bred stock "would not permit their horses to remain in them overnight."

Walker's resolution was laid over for printing after Representative Sterling, Philadelphia, said it should not be considered immediately because the question involved was so important that members of the House should be given an opportunity to study the situation.

He stated that many men willing to work are out of employment and that by getting public improvements under way some relief could be afforded. The resolution will be printed and may be called up for action next week.

A resolution expressing the thanks of members of the House for copies of the biography of President-elect Hoover, presented by Republican State Chairman Edward Smith, was sponsored by Representative Richards, Lawrence county. The resolution was passed unanimously.

Deaths of the Day

Arthur W. Stonestreet.
Word has been received of the death of Arthur W. Stonestreet of Rockville, Maryland, on Monday, February 25th.

Mr. Stonestreet was the brother of Mrs. D. N. Keast of 302 Wallace avenue. Mrs. Keast and her daughter Mrs. Albert P. ## Katherine Allen Granted Divorce

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Katherine Allen, who named a "Mrs. Browning" as the other woman, today was granted a divorce in White Plains from Edgar Allen, former book agent for Frances (Peaches) Homan Browning.

The decree was granted by Supreme Court Justice Young who last December heard sensational testimony of Allen's alleged trysts with a "Mrs. Browning" in his home at Larchmont while Mrs. Allen was away.

are different. Three measures were pending there, which leaders hope to enact before adjournment. These were the resolution, providing for a narcotic investigation, the Jones bill providing five year prison terms for bootleggers, and the edge resolution for a survey of the proposed Nicaragua canal. Once these have been acted upon, the house will sit back and watch the senate.

Several Major Bills
In the senate three major filibusters were held and greeted for action. They were aimed respectively at preventing final action on the second deficiency appropriation bill, the house reapportionment bill and the confirmation of Irvine L. Lenroot (R) of Wisconsin, as a member of the United States Court of Customs appeals.

The house reapportionment bill will become the senate's "unfinished business" late this afternoon, following enactment of the glass marketing bill. It probably will be laid aside temporarily, however, to permit debate on the deficiency appropriation bill.

Thus the two filibusters will run side by side, adding each other. At the background, the senate had many other problems. Among important bills pending were the Dill measure, extending the life of the federal radio commission for another year, and the Jones bill, authorizing a $40,000,000 appropriation for the 1930 census. If filibusters prevail, these and hundreds of minor bills undoubtedly will be killed in the legislative jam.

Presents Appeal To Pardon Board

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—Robert L. Wallace, former deputy attorney general, presented before the board of pardons today the case of Frank L. Clinefelter, who is serving a six to 12-year term for embezzlement of $15,000 from the Lawrence Savings & Trust company.

Wallace contended that Clinefelter's sentence was excessive and asserted that the four years he already has served is sufficient punishment for the crime. He presented a petition carrying more than 300 names signed by New Castle and Lawrence county officials as well as a number of individual letters.

Lieutenant Governor Arthur H. James, chairman of the board, suggested to Wallace that because of the large number of letters he had obtained that it might be advisable to "save some of them for the other poor fellows who do not have any."

ATTRACTIVE LUNCHEON AT FIRST M. E. CHURCH

Remember the FACTS about used car allowances

MOST new car sales now involve the trading-in of a buyer's used car. More and more people are asking: "Why should my used car seem to have several values? . . . Why should dealers in different makes of cars offer me allowances differing materially? . . . Does the largest allowance offered mean the best deal for me?"

Here are basic facts:

- 1 Your used car has seemingly different values because competitive dealers are bidding to sell you a new car.
- 2 Your used car has only one fundamental basis of value: what the dealer who accepts it in trade can get for it in the used car market.
- 3 The largest trade-in allowance which is offered on your used car is not necessarily the best deal for you. Sometimes it is; sometimes it is not.
- 4 An excessive allowance may mean that you are paying an excessive price for the new car in comparison with its real value.
- 5 Judge the merits of each new car in comparison with its price, including all delivery and finance charges. Then weigh any difference in the allowances offered on your used car.

WHEN you trade-in your present car, remember that you are first of all making a purchase and not a sale. You are buying a new car and simply applying your present car as a credit toward the purchase price of the new car.

Make the Army a School.
A Job for Lindbergh.
Trotzky and His Sorrow.
Not Enough Diamonds.

By ARTHUR G. BRISBANE (Copyright, 1929, King Features Synd., Inc.)

Mr. Davis secretary of war is to be congratulated on happier conditions in the army as proved by the great increase in re-enlistments. Men once in the army want to stay there.

The nation has two schools for training officers, West Point and Annapolis. Why not make the army itself a great training school for officers? Young men all want to fly, to make army life attractive and useful to the nation. One thousand flyers might be worth many billions of dollars to this country.

Mr. Mills able advertiser, man, wishes you to know that he has offered President Coolidge $75,000 a year for four years to act as general director of a homes furnishing movement.

President Coolidge has bigger officials. Why not offer the home furnishing job to Col. Lindbergh whose mind just now is probably concentrated on that very subject.

At last real news of Trotzky, walking up and down in Constantinople, free to do as he pleases—except that he must leave Constantinople. And Turkish newspapers are forbidden to mention his name. Rather hard on a public man.

Loking over the Bosphorus, one of the finest prospects that the world affords. Trotzky probably indulges a bitter mood.

Long ago the emperors established themselves there on the border line between Europe and Asia
and for centuries it was supposed that Constantinople would be the center of the world. The Mediterranean is now a lake and the Atlantic is yielding
first place to the Pacific.

Trotzky must think of days when it was supposed that the "Great Russian People in Revolution, glory
fades quickly.

Patriotic ladies present to Mrs.
Coolidge a souvenir of her admirable
"kindness" and graciousness while hostess of the White House.

The souvenir contains 200 diamonds.

Two hundred thousand diamonds
would not be too many except that Mrs. Coolidge cares nothing for jewelry, wears practically none.

If a gentleman's committee emulating the intelligent ladies' committee tried to give Calvin Coolidge as many dollars as he has earned, he would be the richest man in the world with plenty to spare.

In certain lines modern civilization
is efficient although it does not know how to stop bootlegging or discourage wholesale crime.

At 2:15 p. m. Monday in New York on Fourth Avenue in the silk district near Twentieth street a Yellow taxicab caught fire. Two minutes later
the air was full of strange noises, coming from every direction. Several engines, two enormous hook and ladder trucks, one chemical fire engine, three automobiles bringing fire chiefs and other apparatus concentrated on that little yellow taxi. It never dreamed that it could be so important.

Six firemen in rubber coats, with six iron hooks, jerked the hood off
the engine and that fire was a thing of the past.

Then all the apparatus, sirens howling, returned whence it had come with all the dignity of the angel messenger that Dante describes, coming to rebuke presumptuous fiends and returning.

A "social leader" died in Palm Beach Monday and from Miami
there came news that Jack Dempsey had escaped death thanks to the bad
aim of an intruder in his home.

Newspapers as you notice give ten times as much space to Dempsey alive and well as to the social leader dead and cold. And that's good journalism.

Newspapers should tell people about things that interest them. A good newspaper is an accurate mirror, not a preacher.

Chicago doesn't like the suggestion that New York time should become Chicago time. During daylight saving Chicago would have to put the clock ahead two hours.

Chicago says: "We get up early now.
Let New York adopt our time. They take life comfortably there and it doesn't matter much when they get up."

She keeps a silent tongue.

"I'd like to live a year or so long-

The World
AND THE Mud PuddlesEFFECTS OF GOVERNMENT
MEDDLING.

There never was a more striking illustration of the evils of a Commission Form of Government than that made manifest by a comparison between Railroad and Industrial Corporations.

The railroads are just as vital in making permanent prosperity as the industrial, mining and utility companies. The industrial companies, steel, copper, chain store, power and automobile companies are combining because they see a way of reducing costs and regulating output, and this means reasonable dividends to investors, satisfactory wages, more uniform operations of plants and increased consuming power of the people, all of which spells permanent prosperity.

Unrestricted competition, overproduction and high costs are warnings that keep people from investing in such lines of industry. Ask the man who went through trying experiences of years when "competition" was considered the "life of trade." Prosperity was short lived in those days.
Competition is still considered the "life of trade" but not without cooperation.

Branches of industry that operate
on the theory the unlimited competition is the "life of trade" are not paying big taxes to the government, or feeding an adequate return on capital invested. The coal industry, the basic industry of all industry, is a good example. "Without coal, industry would be set back a quarter of a century. Yet, the coal business is demoralized because of the unrestricted competition resulting from overproduction. The fertilizer industry is another example. The farmer cannot get along without it, yet
the fertilizer companies have been demoralized for years.

Strange as it may seem, industrial companies go on strengthening themselves through mergers and co-operation effort while the railroads have for years been struggling with the Interstate Commerce Commission to bring about mergers that would be of even greater benefit to the public than industrial consolidations.
They haven't even a sample to show,
notwithstanding the hundreds of millions of the people's money already spent for that purpose.

Is it any wonder that the industrial stocks for the past several years have been in greater public demand
than the railroad issues?

Increasing Public Interest In Summer White House Plan

Prospect Of Converting Mount Weather In The Blue Ridge Mountains Into Presidential Retreat Viewed With General Approval

When President Coolidge first proposed a hot weather retreat for his successors in the Blue Ridge mountains near Washington, the idea met with instant popular approval. Now interest is stimulated by the prospect of soon turning government property
on Mount Weather into a hot summer White House.

Commenting on the selection of this site on the summit of one of the Blue Ridge ranges, the ROANOKE WORLD-NEWS says: "With no cost for acquisition of property, and with no present use for it by the weather bureau, an excellent opportunity is offered at small cost to try out the suggestion of President Coolidge. If it should later be found to be less available than now appears, the property, when again offered for sale,
will have lost nothing in value by having been at one time the summer residence of Presidents of the United States."

Mr. Coolidge approves the Mount Weather site, and it is reported that the site has been visited by Mr. Hoover, who also gave it his approval. The ROCHESTER TIMES-
UNION, "The buildings may be easily converted to accommodate the President's entourage. The selection seems ideal. A weather observatory was established there after careful investigation. The air is bracing, the view wide, commanding and beautiful."

It is only 60 miles from the Capital City, an hour-and-a-half easy
run," explains the WASHINGTON STAR. "It is 1,800 feet above sea level, with wonderful temperature. It is some three or four miles off the thoroughfare, which is a desirable feature, giving that exclusiveness so essential for the President. The area of the property is 83 acres. The views of the valley and of the Blue Hills of Virginia are superb and unsurpassed in this part of the world.
Four counties are visible from this vantage point." On the recreational side, The Star points out that "there are three golf courses nearby"; that
"it is adjacent to the fox-hunting
section"; and that "there is abundant fishing in the Shenandoah and Potomac rivers close by."

A President with the shooting and fishing proclivities of Mr. Coolidge and a fishing fondness of Mr. Hoover should find that an inviting retreat.
The PASADENA STAR-NEWS,
which makes the further suggestion:
"Another proposal is before Congress—to establish a home in the District of Columbia, for the Vice President of the United States. The second official of the nation has been treated like a step-child. There is no home for him, except as he suits around and rents or buys quarters. He is just about as important as a bridegroom at a fashionable wedding, where everybody is looking at and thinking about the bride. The Vice President should have an official home in keeping with the dignity and importance of the position should be made to have."

"Mr. Coolidge has done a good service for his successors in developing the idea of a retreat," declares
the CHARLESTON EVENING POST,
with the judgment that "such a place
should have been provided long ago,"
and that "there must be many occasions on which the President would escape from importunities in order to consider quietly problems of large importance or to confer without fear of interruption upon matters calling for decision." The HARRISBURG PA-TRIO also feels that "it is just a trifle surprising that so many years have passed without its establishment."

"No matter whether a Chief Executive and his family make a brief
or a protracted stay at Mount Weather,
the establishment will be well worth while," avers the MANCHESTER UNION, with, however, the reservation that it "does not, presumably,
mean that after this, Presidents will abandon wholly vacations in various parts of the country." The SOUTH BEND TRIBUNE believes that a "vast majority of the taxpayers share
the Coolidge view; that 'conservation of the Chief Executive's health is an important matter' and that 'a Summer White House is needed.'"

"Memories of two broken men who suffered their health to the destruction of the office have lent the question rural meaning." Compared with its value in conserving the President's energies, the cost of the project will be small, advises the SAN ANTONIO EVENING NEWS, adding that "perhaps Mr. Coolidge could not request this boon for himself, but with propriety he may seek it for his successors."

Observing that "President Coolidge means evidently to leave as clean a slate as he can for his successor," the OMAHA WORLD-HERALD comments: "Mr. Hoover, if Coolidge can prevent it, isn't going to be subjected to the annoyance of having Saturday afternoons off and no place to go except down the Potomac on the Mayflower. He is going to have, if Coolidge can't get it for him, a nice,
quiet little retreat in the Blue Ridge Mountains, where the trail of the lonely pine is located. It begins to look as though we shall not be able to keep our Presidents happy and contented unless we furnish them with a fishing camp, a shooting edge, a seaside resort, a 10,000 cabin
in the mountains and maybe a member of the Mount Weather club, a berth in a Florida tarpon club."

A query is presented by the GRAND RAPIDS PRESS: "Would the project, for the average President, offer
a genuine natural refuge from the trials of public life or merely another burden on his mind? We ask, because, when the Prince of Wales
wants a genuine retreat from care, about the only place he appears to find it is in a Canadian ranch, a place without style, where the Prince wears old clothes, chins
with the cattlemen like one of them,
and gives up all the claims and worries of luxury."

DIRECT ACTION

Despatches say Polish women in the outskirts of Warsaw, capital city, wreaked five days of riotousness accused of over-charging. In these civilized days of "conferences" and polite, ineffective organization efforts,
one is attracted by this direct action.
These women got results. One can't easily defend them. It is always better to get results within the law,
and to do without them if you can't get them that way. But there will always be an answering note of sympathy from most of us who would now and then, in a good cause, like to break a window to get what we want.

TEARS

I can stand any pain when I know that I must.

I can endure what I believe.

I'll stand for my cause when I think it is just.

If it's fight, I will roll up each sleeve.

Sharp words will not frighten me out of my case.

And I will not give in to my fears.

But I'm free to confess I've no fear
age to face

The wife when she bursts into
tears.

I've weapons defensive for foes who attack.

At the dentist's I try to be brave.

In a battle of words I will loudly talk back.

And an armistice I'll never crave.

From my post and my point not a foot will I run.

I'm not daunted by jibes or by sneers.

But I know that my battle is lost and I'm done

Whenever she bursts into tears.

In a fair fight I think that my own could hold.

If she'd willingly listen to me

In matters of logic or reason, a bold and courageous contender I'd be.

But always against me the argument goes.

As it's gone for these 25 years.

And she gets what she wants in the end, for she knows

That I can't stand the sight of her tears.

DENBY

The life of Edwin Denby, who died recently, may serve as an example of what a man may do by starting at the bottom, when he is really trying for the top. Denby was a "gob" in the navy; he was a "devil dog" in the marines. And he rose to be secretary of the navy. He was blamed, when in the cabinet, for agreeing to the leasing of oil lands. Not a man like Edwin Denby, but knew that he did only what he thought was for the true interests of his country. He was a real patriot.

NEW COMMANDMENTS

Dr. W. L. Stidger, pastor of a Socie-tarian Methodist church, compiles the new ten commandments for wives and women. They are interesting, whether observable or not:

1. Thou shalt not nag.
2. Thou shalt not be jealous.
3. Thou shalt not give thy thoughts wholly unto dressing.
4. Thou shalt not be pugnacious.
5. Thou shalt attempt to live up to the ideals that have been dreamed for thee.
6. Thou shalt not expect thy husband to be the cook or the dishwasher.
7. Thou shalt remember that thy house is thy first shrine.
8. Thou shalt remember that men love good women and cleave to them forever.
9. Thou shalt set the spiritual note of human life.
10. Thou shalt be loving and thou shalt have joy.

Local Streams Are Dropping

Water Stage Drops About Foot During Past Few

BOTH AT HIGH STAGE, HOWEVER

While the waters of the Shenango river and the Neshannock had fallen somewhat at noon today, nevertheless the stage at which they now remain could not be considered so low. The Neshannock, at noon, had lowered probably 8 inches since last night while the stage of the Shenango dropped approximately that much too.

Large cakes of ice, broken boards, old boxes and other loose refuse along the upper banks of the Shenango floated down past the West Washington street bridge all during the day. In the Neshannock creek there was evidence that most of the ice near the banks had cleared, for very little was to be seen in those waters.

Reports from up-stream sections are to the effect that high waters are causing slight floods in the immediate neighborhood of the channels. No such occurrence however is likely to happen here at the present.

Ice lined the banks of both the Shenango and Neshannock streams today as far as one could see. In the back yards of Neshannock avenue residents there is ice that was heaved from the channel by the terrible force created Monday night when the solid ice on the stream let go. Probabilities are that this ice will remain for some length of time or until Old Sol comes out strong enough to penetrate the thickness of the larger cakes.

Grangers Attend Butler Meeting

Grangers, Librarians And Women's Club Members Attend First State
Meeting

A number of New Castle and Lawrence county people attended the first of a series of 24 conferences between state grange, library association of the state, and Pennsylvania State college, which took place at Butler February 26. Lawrence Butler and Armstrong counties were included in this district meeting.

The meeting occurred in the Community building at Butler, and was called to order early in the morning by Howard G. Eissman state grange lecturer. Officers for the meeting included a number of local people. David Kyle was appointed overseer; Mrs. Norman Hunt, lady assistant steward; and Mrs. William Harlan, pianist.

From the New Castle Federation of Women's clubs and public library, Mrs. Charles Green, Miss Alice Sterling, Mrs. J. Lee McFate, Mrs. W. W. Sniff and Mrs. Carl Wilson attended. Perhaps the point of greatest significance touched in this joint meeting, at which many from the three counties attended, was the establishment of libraries for the counties. A real attempt is to be made by the libraries, grange and clubs to establish country libraries.

Speakers at the meeting included E. B. Dorsett, state grange head, Howard G. Eissman, state grange lecturer, and Miss Evelyn Matthews, field worker for the Pennsylvania state library.

The joint meetings was the first to occur in the state. Twenty three similar meetings will also take place at other points of the state with the library, grange and state college as well as women's clubs working in conjunction.

The meeting was attended by many grangers and others of Lawrence county.

Damages For Auto Accident Demanded

$5,500 From Paul L. Humphreys For Injuries

Lena and Ralph Marinelli have filed a suit at the prothonotary's office against Paul L. Humphrey in which damages are claimed for an automobile accident on North Liberty street. Lena Marinelli claims that she was riding south in a machine driven by her daughter, Rose Marinelli, when the Humphrey car crashed into the Marinelli car from the rear as the latter car was coming to a stop by the side of the street. It is claimed that Rose Marinelli stuck out her hand signifying her intention to stop, and also put on the brakes, which worked the "stop" light on the rear of the car. Mrs. Lena Marinelli received injuries to her back and other parts of her body when the Humphrey car hit the Marinelli car. She asks for $5,000 and Ralph, the husband, asks for $500.

Thief Gets $30 Out Of Strong
Box Of Safe Last Night

Highland Service Station, Highland avenue and Boyles avenue, was entered some time last night and the cash box in the safe broken into and $30 in change taken.

The robbery was discovered this morning by the proprietor, W. R. Hanna, on opening up for business and the police notified at once. Detective John Young and Officer Thomas Lynch made an investigation and found that entrance had been effected through a rear window, which had been broken. The robber had then gained access to the service station proper.

The door of the safe had been left closed but not locked. The robber had opened the door and then used a hammer to break into the cash box of the safe, where the money was secured.

THERE IS ETERNAL WAR—

Between virtue and vice and every man is enlisted on one side or the other.

Between justice and injustice and each one has some responsibility. Between the right and the wrong in every human heart.

Between order and chaos and only God holds anarchy at bay.

Between good and evil with man casting the deciding vote.

Between love and hate; but hate is doomed, for God fights with love.

Between truth and error, but truth has an invaluable ally in Time.

Two Gasoline Bills Before Assemblymen

Governor Fisher Must Decide On Collections Should Bill Be Passed

ALMOST SURE TO ENACT MEASURE

By ROBERT E. GORMAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—The Pennsylvania legislature will have to decide whether or not gasoline tax is to be collected from the distributor or from the retailer. In the event that the legislature should pass bills providing collections from both, then the final decision would have to be made by Governor Fisher.

The house now has in its possession three cent gasoline tax bills providing for collection from the dealer, sponsored by Representative Sterling, Philadelphia, and one which provides collection from the distributor, sponsored by Representative Talbot, Delaware, and sent to committee today for consideration.

The Talbot bill would change the entire collection system in Pennsylvania and make distributor liable for the return of the tax to the proposed department of revenue. The bill was prepared by the Delaware member following conferences with State Treasurer Lewis and his presentation to the house gives that body opportunity to decide which of the two collection systems shall be used.

A second bill introduced by Representative Talbot would continue the one cent emergency tax which would automatically expire June 30 to September 30 when the provisions of his bill would become effective.

Opposition Appears
Opposition to collection from the distributors has developed in the house on several occasions because it was pointed out that distributors in other states could deliver in Pennsylvania without having to remit the tax, but provisions in the talbot bill take care of this situation and make the dealer who receives a consignment of gasoline from outside the state the distributor. The new bill is one of the most important to reach the legislature this session and gives promise of receiving a large amount of consideration before being disposed of finally.

Another bill to go to committee today was the Turner bill providing for a reorganization of the Aeronautics commission and the granting of additional powers to the Department of Internal Affairs. The bill provides that the secretary of internal affairs should be chairman of the Aeronautics commission and it outlines the duties of the Bureau of Aeronautics.

Would License Airports
The bill would require the licensing of all airports and landing fields which are owned or controlled by private individuals and authorizes the commission to establish civil airways across Pennsylvania, and license aircraft, airmen, and air navigation facilities.

The Sterling bill creating the Department of Revenue and a number of other bills amending acts so as to conform with the proposals in the revenue bill are also in committee today after having been passed on second reading.

Action Delayed
Representative Sterling, Philadelphia, sponsor of the bills, is purposely delaying final action on the measures so that members of the legislature may have full opportunity to study their provisions. Several amendments were made to the bills before they passed second reading and some additional amendments may be added in committee. It may be that before final action is taken on the bills a hearing on them will be scheduled. All of the revenue bills were referred to the committee on Ways and Means.

When the House adjourns today it will reconvene at noon Tuesday, March 5. Members of the legislature will go to Washington to witness the inaugural ceremonies next Monday and for that reason the customary Monday night session has been abandoned for next week.

port from Warren stated the stage was four feet and six inches at Franklin. Ice has not started moving in the upper river districts. Brotzman declared, leaving the waters fairly free of ice. It is expected the lower rivers will be free of the greater portion of ice now jamming them before the other ice jams give way.

Reach Peak Today.
Brotzman bases his belief that the peak will be reached this afternoon at between 26 and 28 1/2 feet on the report that while the Allegheny is still rising, the Monongahela has started to fall. The greater portion of the flood waters are due to melting snow and ice, and with no heavy rains in prospect, Brotzman believes no great danger is to be expected.

The Baltimore & Ohio warehouse loading platform inaccessible. Trains used by trucking companies, which were left for loading last night, were standing in water level with their floors. Parker automobiles along the Monongahela wharf were ordered moved some distance back from the rising water.

Rise is Started.
The rivers started to rise rapidly at 2 p. m. yesterday. The continued mild temperatures had loosened the snow from mountain sides and it came down in torrents during the evening and night, particularly from the Kiskiminetus river district which empties into the Monongahela.

Later reports from Natrona stated that the flood waters were subsiding in that district.

In Philadelphia
Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—Low lying sections along the Schuylkill river in the Manayunk part of the city and Montgomery county were inundated today from the flood waters caused by the heavy rains of the past 24 hours and melting snows. Perkiomen creek also was reported out of its banks. Norristown and suburbs reported much damage from the rising waters.

Hundreds Homeless.
Columbus, O., Feb. 27.—More than 600 people are homeless, property damage is expected to exceed $3,000,000, transportation and communication are crippled and in some places disrupted, as the results of the torrential rains over the central part of Ohio Tuesday night which caused many streams to leave their banks and go on the rampage, according to a checkup today.

Flood dangers still loom as the result of the governmental forecast which predicted rain for tomorrow.

Springfield Hard Hit
Springfield was the hardest hit section of the state. Buck creek broke from its banks, forcing more than 200 persons in its valley to flee their homes and did property damage that is expected to approximate $1,500,000.

The Mad river left its banks near Dayton and flooded 200 homes, causing their occupants to vacate.

Newark suffered heavily from the rising water of four adjacent streams when the inundated the lowlands, marooned 15 persons who were after wards rescued by police and firemen, and caused a property loss of nearly $500,000.

Central Pennsylvania Hit.
HARRISBURG Feb. 27.—Rising waters in practically every river and stream in Central Pennsylvania today threatened to result in serious flood damage.

As melting snow and rains caused small streams in the north-central portion of the state to overflow their banks ice packs in several sections of the Susquehanna river began to move out. The ice in the west branch started moving at Renovo last night, bringing an eight-inch rise at Lock Haven. The north branch, however, showed only a small rise early today.

The Schuylkill river was reported to be ten feet above normal and still rising early today. In the Lancaster district Mill creek left its banks at Hinkletown, flooding the highway to a depth of four feet. Twenty-five passengers were removed to safety last night from a motor bus that stalled in the flood.

Breaks Ice Gorge.
Near Bloomsburg several families fled their homes when a rushing creek overflowed while at Berwick residents averted flood danger by opening the ice gorge in Briar creek with picks and bars. The tracks of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad were covered to a depth of two feet at Danville halting operation of freight trains.

Ralph H. Hosmer of the state department of forests and waters said reports reaching here indicated that the Susquehanna river would rise about two or three feet but that at present there was no flood danger in the Harrisburg district.

WOODS & GOLDER ARE LAYING PIPE

Cool Snap Halts Thawing Of Snow

The alarm which was felt yesterday, when the ice in the Neshannock river went out, after the rain of the night before, has been greatly lessened by the cooler weather which followed.

The melting of the snow and ice on the hills surrounding the Neshannock and Shenango rivers, was halted by the cooler weather and also checked the precipitation. Danger of a flood seems past for the present.

Your Income Tax

No. 20.

If property was acquired by gift after December 31, 1920, the basis is the same as it would be in the hands of the donor, or last preceding owner by whom it was not received by gift. For example, a man in 1921 bought stock in a corporation at $100 a share, kept it until January, 1922, when it was worth $120, and then gave it to his son, who in 1923 gave it to his wife, the stock then being worth $150 a share. If in 1928 the wife sold the stock for $200 a share, the taxable gain is not $50 but $100 a share, the gain over the cost to the preceding owner who did not acquire the stock by gift.

In computing the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property acquired by gift or transfer in trust on or before December 31, 1920, the basis is the fair market value of such property at the time of acquisition. For example, a taxpayer received in 1915 a gift of real estate having a fair market value of $10,000; he sold it in 1928 for $15,000. The original cost to the donor was $12,000. The taxable gain, however, is $5,000.

WAR TIME LETTERS BY COL. LEASURE

Written From Battle-front During Civil War

From Papers of Late
Col. J. S. DuShane

Col. Daniel Leasure
Picture Property of T. A. Preston, 1218 East Washington Street.

In the Front, Opposite Knoxville,
October 1, 1863

My dearest Wife:-

This is probably the last letter I will be able to write you for some time as the old Ninth corps is once more going on the rampage. We are getting ready to move to Chattanooga to help Rosecrans.

The Twenty Third corps is on its way and we start tomorrow, possibly today. It is 110 miles and we expect to make it in six days.

On Sunday night at one o'clock I was called up by Captain Pool of General Burnside's staff and ordered to take my command over the Holston river with Knicker's battery. I take a position to repel a threatened attack of a large rebel force marching on Knoxville.

I have remained here in position ever since but no force has approached nearer than Merryvale, 17 miles from here. It is now Thursday. Several forces of the enemy are in my front but do not approach my front yet.

General Burnside has his body-guard of cavalry to patrol the front. The weather has been delightful but last night it rained and it shows prospects of continuing. Our health is good and we are in very good spirits.

We hope to carry Luck and success to Rosecrans as we did to Grant, and if we clean out Bragg, the remainder of the work will be short and conclusive.

A large number of our men lie back at Cruel Harbor and Camp Nelson in convalescent camps. Still we are a formidable corps owing to our long experience.

A letter received yesterday stated that Ruskick is better but is about to be discharged on account of disability. He will be home soon.

We had a mail Sunday night and I got two dearly prized letters from you.

I wrote you about losing my horse, Billy. He has not been replaced yet as there could be no horse found here that was deemed sufficiently good for me by the Roundhead committee. So Captain Curtin has loaned me a public horse until I get a remount.

At the present moment Jeff Justice informs me that all is quiet over at headquarters so our movement is not positive. Jeff is commissary at Division headquarters at present.

Jimmy is doing fine and is delighted with his travels as far as he has gone.

I do so long for letters from home. It is more difficult to get mails. The more precious are the letters. I must close hastily for the mail. Write as before to Cincinnati.

Dearest love and best wishes to you all and may God bless you. Dearest of wives,

Affectionately Your Husband,

Why Doctor Reynolds Insists on Milk of Magnesia in Tablet Form

The Doctor's Verdict.

"Yes, Lac-Ma Wafers. I always insist on my patients using Lac-Ma when the need of a Milk of Magnesia is indicated. Liquid magnesia precipitates while Lac-Ma gives assurance of accurate dosages and are pleasant and easy to take."

Again science has triumphed and today the medical and dental professions are prescribing Lac-Ma Wafers.

Children Love Lacma.

DRINK WATER TO HELP WASH OUT KIDNEY POISON

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder
Bothers You, Begin
Taking Salts

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulate them to their normal activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.

Governor Fisher Will Have Escort

Special Washington News Correspondent
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27.—

Few Dumb-bell Drivers Are Blamed

(International News Service)

HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 27.—Fifteen out of every one hundred automobile operators are responsible for all the accidents on highways while the other eighty-five are quick-thinking and respond successfully to all emergencies that arise as they drive, says Robbins H. Stoeckel, state commissioner of motor vehicles, after a long study of the situation. And to make the present traffic situation better and safer all the efforts of the authorities ought to be devoted to better traffic control, the commissioner believes.

Someone in Connecticut suggested that every auto driver be re-examined at once and then every three years whether the driver has trouble or not. Stoeckel believes that the eighty-five good drivers should be left alone and only the fifteen be subjected to examinations again.

NOTICE!

Talking Motion Pictures Will Be

Beginning Week of March 4th

Many novel features in talking-motion picture reproduction are promised by the Penn Theatre, now being equipped with the RCA Photophone system of sound reproduction. The house will be virtually "sprayed" with sound, according to the installation engineer of the RCA Photophone, Inc., who is here to supervise the corps of engineers, acoustical experts and electricians engaged in installing sound reproducing equipment in this theatre.

"About 80 miles of wire, two truck loads of other accessories and from 8 to 25 dynamic loud speakers, representing the latest achievements of the radio art, are required in the equipment of most of the larger theatres of the country for reproducing talking-motion pictures," he said. "Perhaps one of the most interesting features of the RCA Photophone system now being installed in the Penn Theatre," he continued, "is that those spectators and listeners sitting in the upper section will be able to hear just as well as the occupants of front seats. At the same time the occupants of front seats need fear no blasting sounds of music or speech which so often interfere with the enjoyment of those sitting too near the orchestra or stage."

"This is because one of the fundamental features of the RCA Photophone system, which includes the contributions made in this field by the General Electric Company and the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company, is the 'fan beam' system of sound distribution. By the proper placement of loud speakers in relation both to the stage and to the audience sound is distributed to all parts of the house at even intensity."

Sound-motion pictures reproduced with life-like effect are promised by the Penn Theatre when the new RCA Photophone system is installed. "We chose the RCA Photophone system," Manager Speer Marcus declared, "because it is the system universally approved by the leading radio and acoustical authorities in the United States."

"The day has passed when theatre audiences were satisfied merely with the novelty of sound in motion pictures. Our audiences demand good music faithfully reproduced, interesting skits on the motion picture screen done with real naturalness of both speech and action, as well as perfect synchronization of sound and motion."

"The talking-motion pictures to be presented at this theatre and reproduced by the RCA Photophone system will mark a great advance in entertainment. The Photophone system does not record extraneous noises. There are no scratching sounds to spoil the effect of a dramatic situation and no grating monotonies to interfere with the short pauses of silence often required to the dramatic action of a story on the screen."

Pennsylvania Will Have Only Single Senator

Action Of Senate Means State
To Continue To Be Half Represented

SOUTH CAROLINA SENATOR PROTESTS

By ARTHUR C. WIMMER
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27.—
Pennsylvania will enter the 71st congress when the special session convenes in April with only one representative in the United States senate and with the status of Senator elect William Vare still unsettled, as a result of resolutions adopted by the senate calling for the continuation of the Vare investigating committee.

When the resolution was presented to the senate, Senator Cule Elise of South Carolina was the first to leap to his feet in protest. He demanded that the senate decide without further delay whether Vare is entitled to his seat, and thereby give Pennsylvania
an opportunity to the constitutional right of two representatives in the senate.

Demands Justice.
"If the senate is going to bar Vare,
let the senate do it now," Senator Elise shouted. "Pennsylvania must then elect another senator to fill the vacant seat in the chamber. Or if the senate is going to give Vare his seat,
do it now."

Elise said that he was tired of seeing Pennsylvania denied rights according to the constitution.
"If Senator Reed is willing to allow the resolution to pass, I am too," Elise argued. "But if I were the senator from Pennsylvania I would insist upon immediate action which would accord to my state her constitutional rights."

Senator Reed, in replying, told the senate that he was also anxious to have the Vare matter settled, but stated that he did not see how Pennsylvania would gain her constitutional rights by protests voiced by him to the passage of the resolution calling for the continuation of the Vare investigating committee.

The resolution was passed which means that when the 71st congress convenes, Pennsylvania will have only one member in the senate and will not know whether Vare is to be granted or denied his seat.

duced his wife as a new member

Rev. Erickson Makes Address

Evangelist Speaks On Healing At Service At Gospel Tabernacle

ALL-DAY MEETING ATTRACTS THROU

Christian and Missionary Alliance churches of the section observed an all-day meeting yesterday in the Gospel Tabernacle, 210 Pearson street.
It was a day of fellowship as well as worship. Those from a distance or who could not bring baskets and all ate together at dinner and supper.

The morning service was devoted to prayer. Rev. T. J. Keegan, pastor of the Moravia Street branch and Elwood City, was in charge. In a brief talk he emphasized that "abiding in Christ" was the secret for answered prayer.

The afternoon service was a re-echo
of the Tabernacle meetings held on Mill street. Miss Cardner was at the piano and Mrs. Erickson in charge of the singing. The church was packed several minutes before the service started and it was rather difficult for those coming late to obtain a place.
The inspiring song service was followed by prayer by Rev. Scripture of the Hoover Heights Tabernacle. Rev.
and Mrs. C. H. Erickson sang "I've Had a Glimpse of Jesus".

After a few remarks by the pastor,
Rev. E. C. Anderson, Rev. Erickson spoke on the truth of healing, showing some of the steps in the appropriation by faith. He said we don't believe God heals the body, we know he does. We need to preach and practice the Word of God these days.
The first thing necessary to faith,
he said, is knowledge. Know God's Word. Be able to say, "It is written." Believe the positive statements of God and we will come to understand the rest as needed.

Opportunity was then given for those desiring prayer to come forward and 31 came for prayer.

Mrs. John Wink and Mrs. Avery
Rigby, to the accompaniment of guitars, sang in a very beautiful manner the song, "Serving Jesus".

Rev. S. W. McGarvey gave a brief message on the coming of the Lord,
in which he stressed that all Christian experience and blessing looked forward to the return of Christ. His remarks were based on I Thes. 5:11-28. Stating a number of Scriptures declaring this truth, the speaker said that a preparation was necessary. It is more than assenting to the truth.
It must effect the life. We must be children of light.

The church was again filled when
Rev. Keegan led the evening song service. Mr. Bunney of Ellwood City was at the piano. Rev. Scripture conducted the testimonial service.
When he asked how many had had definite healings in their life, fully one-half of the entire audience rose.
Such mass testimony to this truth
surely cannot be looked at lightly.
Rev. Keegan played the organ-accor-dian to several choruses. He also played a solo, "I Belong to the King"
on the saw. He, with Brother Mc-Garvey, sang "Carry Your Cross with a Smile".

Rev. McGarvey gave the message of the evening. His Scripture lesson was James 1:1-14; 3:13-16. He spoke on "God's Provisions for Keeping". To be saved and sanctified, he said, are wonderful experiences. To be kept, however, is most necessary. God's people, James the practical preacher,
tells us, will be tried and proven.
Paul stated the same truth,
"all who will live Godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution." Peter joins with the admonition, "think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you." But God will keep during the trial.

The next day meeting will be held at the Moravia street church in March.

To Print Bank's Signatures On New Bills To Be Issued

Expect New Currency To Be

When the new smaller-sized currency, now being printed by the government, is put into circulation figuratively speaking, it will no longer be necessary for the cashier and president of the bank to develop temporary writer's cramp, affixing their signatures thereto, Joel S. McKee, cashier of the First National Bank of Lawrence county stated today. Recently,
the various National banks of the country were asked to send in the signatures of their officials, so that they could be printed on the new notes as they are issued to the various banks, thereby saving that trouble.

The amount of floating currency allocated to the First National Bank of Lawrence County is approximately $500,000. This is replenished from time to time as worn out notes are returned for redemption, a five per cent reserve being retained at Washington against this contingency. When $1,750 in old currency has accumulated, new notes to that amount are issued to the bank to replace the old bills, which are destroyed.

While no definite word has been received here, it is believed that the new currency will be in the hands of local bankers for distribution on July 1, the date for its issuance.
The new money is now being printed as fast as possible to have a big reserve on hand to meet the demand

when it is first issued. The old notes will be gradually called in and destroyed, as they are taken in at the banks.

SHARON POLICE ISSUE WARNING

The local police authorities were
this morning advised by the police authorities of Sharon, Pa., to be on the lookout for a man who calls at the homes selling a certain kind of light, secures a dollar or two as a down payment and never delivers the light. The police of this city would appreciate it, if such a person appears at any home here that they be notified at once, in order that the man
may be apprehended.

POLICE REQUESTED TO LOOK FOR BOY

Police of this city on Tuesday received a call from Butler asking the local authorities to be on the lookout

for a boy named Edgar Lee Sloop, aged 12, who had run away from his home in that city and was enroute toward this city.

He is described as being five feet
one inch in height, having brown eyes, for a boy named Edgar Lee Sloop, dark sandy hair, weighing about 100 pounds and having a mark on his face. He was wearing a black raincoat, when he left home.

LOCAL WOMAN QUICKLY RELIEVED AFTER THREE YEARS OF TORTURE

Used Many Kinds of Stomach Medicines Without Relief. Did Not Realize She Had Catarrh of the Stomach. Two Bottles of World's Tonic Brought Wonderful Results.

Stopped Gas From Forming in Stomach and Banished Heavy, Dull Feeling in Front and Back of Head and Put Entire System in Good Condition

"I know there are thousands of people taking medicines for stomach troubles when they really need World's Tonic for Catarrh."

Thus spoke a young woman of this city to the World's Tonic man. While in Paisley's this young woman heard the World's Tonic representative explaining the merits of World's Tonic to a sufferer of Catarrh and volunteered this information.

"In my opinion there are a great many people, perhaps thousands, just like I was. I know from experience, because I kept taking all kinds of stomach medicines for three years and never had any idea that was really suffering from catarrh of the stomach until I read the World's Tonic booklet. It describes almost entirely how I was feeling. Nothing I ate agreed with me, gas formed and my heart beat so fast it was hard to get my breath. I had a heavy, dull feeling in front and back of my head most every day. My stomach felt as if it had fire in it. The World's Tonic booklet told just how this was due to catarrh, and so I went to the drug store and got a bottle. I have taken the second one and am wonderfully improved. The stomach trouble has disappeared and I am never tired out as before taking World's Tonic."

Hundreds suffer from Catarrh of the head, nose, throat, stomach, bowels, kidneys and other organs. All they realize is that the head is stuffed up most of the time. They don't seem to know that their systemic condition is due to swallowing the poisonous mucus that drips from the head. They treat themselves for headache, sore throat, indigestion, torpid liver, painful kidneys and many other troubles when their real trouble is catarrh. World's Tonic rids them of it, they feel like they have a new lease on life.

Sold at McKee's Kut Rate Store, Smith's, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., Paisley's and all other good druggists. (232)

KIDNEY AILMENT LEAVES WHEN YOU TAKE NEW KONJOLA

Happy Man Indorses Master Medicine As Only Remedy That Completely Restored His Health.

"I am more than thankful for the great relief this new Konjola gave me after all other remedies and treatments had failed me. I am Ollie Gordon, Fryburg, Pa., a short distance from Oil City."

"I was in a dreadful condition, getting worse every day and never getting the slightest relief. Aches and pains practically prevented me from standing on my feet. Sound sleep was out of the question and resulting from this was a tired and constantly worn-out feeling. I lost faith in medicines and hope of recovery. It was, indeed, a discouraging situation.

"At first I was inclined to scoff at the idea of Konjola helping me. A few days treatment proved that it was all and more than I claimed for it. My aches and pains became less frequent, then they disappeared entirely. Sound sleep was restored to me and I have greater energy and strength. I know what it means to be sick and what it means to be all sufferers. Konjola is sold in New Castle at Love & McGowan drug store and by all the best druggists throughout this entire section.

Harvey S. Firestone, Rubber
Magnate, Puts Backward African Nation On Its Feet

Independent Rubber Supply
Assured United States; Great Britain Out
In Cold

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second of two articles based on an exclusive interview with Harvey S.
Firestone, multimillionaire rubber king.)

By JAMES K. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Copyright, 1929, International News Service
MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 27.—An American tire magnate, seeking to break the British rubber monopoly and produce an independent rubber supply, has transformed Liberia, a backward country in West Africa, into a modern, progressive nation with a real future.

The story of this remarkable achievement, one of the biggest industrial developments ever undertaken, was told Tuesday by Harvey
S. Firestone, the man who did it. He is president of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, which has factories
at Akron, Ohio, Los Angeles, Hudson, Mass., Hamilton, Ont., and Brent-ford, England. He has preparation mills at Fall River and New Bedford, Mass., and at Singapore and great plantations in Liberia.

"There wasn't both tub nor an electric light in Liberia a few years ago," said Mr. Firestone. "There was only one automobile in the country, owned by the president, and it wouldn't run. The little independent negro republic was very backward and becoming more so."

Today there are between 18,000
and 20,000 men on payrolls in Liberia. Roads have been built through jungle country. A power plant has been erected and stores put up. Many automobiles are in operation there. We have a radio plant at Du River Plantation which communicates directly with our main factory at Akron, Ohio, five thousand miles away.

Liberians Happy
"The people of Liberia are now happy and looking to the future. We actually saved that country. We even negotiated a $5,000,000 loan through
New York bankers for the country."

Mr. Firestone explained how in 1922
Great Britain restricted the rubber growing area in the East Indies and caused the price of rubber to jump to $1.23 a pound in America. So Firestone determined to fight this monopoly by finding a place where an independent supply of rubber could be produced for America. He finally decided on Liberia, undertook the development of the country, and today rubber is selling in this country for around 25 cents a pound.

"Now the United States is assured of an independent rubber supply. We are no longer dependent for rubber on any other country which is an important thing in the event of a national emergency."

"American type bungalows have been built on the edge of the jungle.
We have built ten stores, and have our own power system. We have 125 white American college graduates in charge of the 20,000 black employees.
We are teaching the native laborers to be carpenters, chauffeurs and tradesmen of all types. We have opened a trade school for boys in Liberia and we are co-operating with the missionaries in the establishment of a public school system. In a word, the country has been revolutionized."

Mr. Firestone said that while Thomas A. Edison's experiments to grow rubber in the United States are a great thing, he believes that places like Liberia or the Philippines are more adaptable for rubber production.

"I am glad to tell others about the

"For years I was troubled with indigestion and pains across my back," Mrs. Grossman continued. "I felt miserable all the time. I could not eat any kind of green vegetables. Terrible pains came in my side, and at times I could hardly breathe. There were also pains in my head."

"I read about Ten Herbs in the paper, and started using your medicine.
I have never felt better in my life than I do now. I can eat anything and at any time—even just before relaxing at night—without having a sign of indigestion. The pains are gone from my side, and I sleep soundly. I am pleased to endorse Ten Herbs to the public."

COMPLETING NEW ADDITION TO JOHNSON BRONZE PLANT; READY FOR USE IN APRIL

Work is rapidly progressing on the new addition to the plant of the Johnson Bronze Co., which when completed will make it the most modern plant of its kind in the world.

The new foundry unit, which was started several months ago will be ready for occupancy about April 1. General Manager P. J. Flaherty stated today, and as soon as it is finished, the old foundry unit will be torn down and a new moulding room built in its place. When this unit is completed, the plant will have been rebuilt in its entirety, and not a single building which was used by the old American Car and Ship Hardware Co., predecessor of the Johnson Bronze Co. will remain.

The new foundry unit now under construction is irregular in shape, 150 feet long by approximately 100 feet in width. It will contain 2,200 feet of floor space, and will be two stories in height.

The ground floor will be devoted to foundry purposes, while the second story of the building, will be used as a tool room.

The last word in equipment has been ordered for installation, new machinery has been purchased which was built from the specifications furnished by the local company, and which will be unlike any other machine manufactured for this purpose. It has been designed from the experience gained by the Johnson Bronze Co. in their many years of experience in that line of work.

The new moulding room which will replace the present foundry building, will like the new foundry, be entirely of fire proof construction. When it is finished, the last fire hazard at the plant will have been removed and the last old structure gone.

Few New Castle people who are not familiar with the Johnson Bronze Co.

can conceive the tremendous strides that plant has made in the last ten years, all due to the splendid foresight of P. J. Flaherty.

From a modest beginning, in the days predating the World war, it has grown to be the largest plant in the world engaged exclusively in the manufacture of bronze bushings.

An extensive export business has been built up. Yesterday a News representative saw orders being prepared for shipment to Auckland, New Zealand, in Australia, and to a point in Norway. There is not a section of the globe which does not use Johnson Bronze bushings in some form.

At present, the plant employs approximately 750 people, which makes it rank second only to the steel and tin plate plants from an industrial standpoint. The plant works night and day to keep pace with the steadily growing stream of orders which keep pouring in.

And when the present improvements are completed, the progress of the plant will not stop, because P. J. Flaherty will not let it. From the progress that has been made in the past, it is easy to vision a plant which will just naturally keep on growing.

MILL OUTPUT AGAIN RISING

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—Mill output is again rising, responding to the growing pressure for deliveries, the Iron Age will say tomorrow in its weekly summary of the iron and steel trade.

Steel prices continue to gather strength, wider adoption of advances of $2 a ton on common finishes to sheets and $1 a ton on bars being followed by an increase of $1 on sheet bars, billets and slabs. In the face of increasing pressure for deliveries, the mills, by forcing production, have thus far succeeded in satisfying current requirements of customers, the summary will say.

Many New Castle Holders Of Steel Stock To Benefit By Recapitalization Plan

Hundreds of New Castle stockholders of the United States Steel Corporation are taking a keen interest in announcement that the common stock is to be increased to $1,250,000,000, from $753,321,000, subject to the approval of stockholders at a meeting to be held April 15. A resolution for increase of stock was passed at a meeting of directors in New York yesterday afternoon.

There is no means of knowing just how much steel stock is held in New Castle, but there is a large amount, ranging from a few shares each issued to employees of the local plants, to large amounts held by investors. Many of the stockholders here as well as elsewhere were expecting a stock dividend, instead of rights to purchase more stock.

However, it is believed that proposed recapitalization plan will be to their advantage.

Common stockholders will be offered the right to subscribe for additional shares. The proceeds will be used in retiring the company's funded debt of $134,830,000 in 50-year 5 per cent gold bonds of 1951 at $115 and $136,556,000 in 10-10-60 year 5 per cent bonds of 1963 at $110.

The retirement of both bond issues will result in a saving of $29,247,350 annually in fixed charges.

The amount of common stock to be issued, the ratio to present holdings and the price, terms and dates of payments will be fixed later. The unissued stock will be used for future corporate purposes, but no issue other than that for debt retirement and for employees' stock subscription is contemplated at this time, it was announced.

The increase in common stock is the first since 1927, when, in April, a 40 per cent stock dividend was paid, and the second since organization of the company.

President James A. Farrell said present conditions in the steel industry point to satisfactory operations for the company for months ahead.

Plants, he said, were operating practically at capacity, and prices were on a reasonably satisfactory basis. Directors also recommended to stockholders a revision in the corporation's employees' stock subscription plan to give directors the option of issuing shares to be offered employees or buying the stock in the open market.

Myron C. Taylor, chairman of the corporation's finance committee, is credited with formulating the plan adopted today for redemption of the funded debt.

Recent heavy buying of United States Steel stock has been in anticipation of this step. The common stock today ran up to nearly $197, less than $2 under the record price, but later slipped back to close under $189 on rumors that action on increasing the common stock would be deferred. The closing was $230 under yesterday's figure.

Legion Leaders Have Conference

Past Commanders And Executive Committee Discuss Legion Affairs

NAME CHAPMAN TO HEAD NEW DRIVE

Ways and means of creating a deeper public interest in the objects and undertakings of the American Legion were discussed thoroughly at a meeting of the executive committee members and past commanders of the local post held Tuesday night. Another chief topic of conversation was the matter of enlisting every ex-service man in the New Castle district in the ranks of the local American Legion.

The majority of the committee members and past commanders of the local post were in attendance for the discussion, and the meeting was an interesting one. A frank discussion of all phases of conduct of the affairs of the local post in the past was also entered into before the meeting adjourned.

Why so many ex-service men fail to join the American Legion created wonderment among those who gathered last night. Especially after considering what the American Legion, or particularly its national legislative program has done for them. It was noted that legislation sponsored by the Legion in regards to the disabled man, in securing an increased compensation and more adequate hospital facilities for him, has greatly benefited the ex-soldier. The legislation that the organization has backed up has in all cases benefited the ex-soldier every way.

Not only has the American Legion benefited the ex-service man from a national standpoint, but from a local standpoint as well, the members decided. Considerable assistance has been given the ex-service buddies here in different ways.

At the close of the discussion William Chapman was chosen to act as chairman of a new membership drive to be conducted within the near future. The exact dates have not as yet been chosen but will be soon.

Past commanders of the local post are W. E. Ferver, C. L. Horner, R. C. Lutz, J. R. Hoys, T. W. McCullough, W. G. Fleming, W. Walter Braham, Harry Long and E. E. Russell. Members of the executive committee are W. J. Caldwell, James W. Cole, Harry Rosenthal, W. Walter Braham, James Speed, G. J. Wadlinger, Robert Armstrong, W. R. Allen and Pat J. Dempsey.

Dr. David Snodgrass Dies At Meadville

Well Known Physician And Surgeon Passes Away After Seven Months Illness

Dr. David G. Snodgrass, aged 72 years, well known physician and surgeon in Meadville and Crawford county, died at his home in Meadville on Monday evening after an illness of seven months.

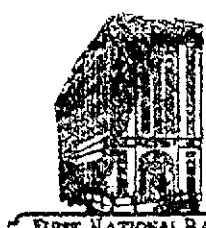

Dr. Snodgrass was born at Jamestown, Ky., great traveler though he be, will town, Mercer county, Pa. February 22, 1857, a son of James and Mary Gammon Snodgrass. As a boy he received his education in the Jamestown seminary and later entered Westminster college from which he graduated. He chose the medical profession as his life work and became a student of the Ohio Medical college, graduating from that institution in 1882.

He located at West Middlesex, later at Conneaut Lake and in 1902 he went to Meadville. His skill as a physician and surgeon was well known throughout Crawford county. He was a member of the United Presbyterian church and the Crawford County State and American Medical societies.

He leaves his wife and one son, John Snodgrass, and two grandchildren.

It is quite unlikely that Mr. Trotzky, great traveler though he be, will ever equal the record of Rogers Hornsby for being shifted.—The Louisville Times.

INSTEAD of exercise

Too busy for exercises or games? Don't worry! Learn the simple secret, millions know, of the exerciser in the vest-pocket box for a dime!

Cascarets give your bowels as much exercise as they get from an hour with the punching bag. Oils, salts and ordinary laxatives don't act like Cascarets. These things only produce mechanical or chemical action. You have to keep taking them because they weaken your bowels.

Cascarets strengthen the bowels. They are made from Cascara Sagrada, which stimulates the peristaltic action and exercises the bowel muscles. Nothing else does this. That's why Cascarets give lasting relief from those symptoms of sluggish bowels, such as headaches, biliousness, bloating, sallow skin, indigestion, no appetite, etc. Sales of over 20 million boxes yearly prove their merit!

Pittsburgh Coal Company To Fall In Line With Governor Fisher On New Plan

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 27.—The Pittsburgh Coal Company, three of whose policemen are behind bars charged with the murder of John Borkoski, Tyre farmer-miner, who was fatally beaten the night of Feb. 9, is not worrying over the fate of the coal and iron police system.

C. B. Leshner, executive vice president of the company stated that he was confident that whatever legislation is passed by the legislature affecting the present police methods, will not "leave the coal companies unprotected or out on a limb."

A bill is being prepared by Governor John S. Fisher and Attorney General Cyrus E. Woods to abolish the coal and iron police.

Leshner said that it would suit the Pittsburgh Coal company if the state would take over the policing of their properties, but he is certain that this will not be done because of the "heavy expense involved."

The killing of Borkoski is regarded as "an unfortunate incident," by the company, Leshner declared, "but it is not any reason why our company should take steps to abolish the coal and iron police system."

Police Chief Warns Merchants To Be On Lookout For "Slickers"

"Beware of the short change artist," was the warning issued today by Chief of Police C. C. Horner.

"There is an epidemic of this easy method of securing funds at the present time in this city, several people reporting being short changed within the past few days.

"I would suggest that merchants and their clerks watch for this sort of a thing and protect themselves against further recurrences of the kind."

This statement of the chief was the outcome of the fact that Mrs. John Rick, who conducts a store at 643 East Washington street, had a costly experience of this nature.

Having made a purchase of some milk, raisins and a bar of soap, he presented a $20 bill in payment for the stuff.

He received his change and then worked the usual old gag of finding some money with which to pay for the goods purchased and asked that his bill be returned. In the windup Mrs. Rick found herself just $5 short.

For the past three years Miss Sterrett has been on the staff of the Religious Education council of the Federated churches of Cleveland, being the director of Young Peoples' work for the city of Cleveland.

Together with Miss Elizabeth Nutting, Miss Sterrett founded Camp Caledon on Lake Erie, the camp that is sponsored by the Erie County Sabbath School association and where

PACKARD Outsold Them All!

A Remarkable Endorsement
of the New Packard Eights
By the World's Most Discriminating Market

ACCORDING to the official registrations, more new Packards were delivered to purchasers in New York County during October, November and December, 1928, than any other make except Ford. Thus did the world's most discriminating motor car market place its unqualified approval upon the new Packard Eights.

There would be enough glory and recommendation for Packard if it had led only those cars in its own price class . . . which it does and has done for many years. But this record was made in competition with cars priced from $500 to $2000 less than the average Packard.

There can be but one reason for this astonishing success. Packards are purchased on their economic worth—their dollar value, as represented by greater satisfaction, longer life and low maintenance costs.

If you would like to know more about the many superiorities of Packard manufacture and the advantages of Packard ownership, we will welcome an opportunity to demonstrate them fully. Just call at our salesrooms or, if you prefer, telephone us and we will bring a Packard Eight to your door.

If you desire to buy out of income, you will find the Packard Payment Plan most attractive. Many take possession of their new cars without any cash outlay—and with the small monthly payments made smaller because the used car allowance exceeds the down payment on the new car.

Need For More Clinics Shown By Experience Here Says Dr. Harper

Over 300 Appeared For Examination; About 90 Are Thoroughly Examined

First Program Of Kind Here;
More To Be Conducted In Future

Need for more state extension clinics of the kind that was conducted all day yesterday in the rooms over the old central fire station, East street, was expressed yesterday by County Medical Director H. C. Harper, who acted in the capacity of general supervisor over the clinic examinations.

According to the report given Dr. Harper by the nurses in charge there were approximately 90 persons examined during the morning and afternoon. In all it is believed that upwards of 250 applied for a diagnosis of their cases but because of scarcity of time had to be unfortunately turned down.

In summing up the clinic Director Harper said it was the first and most successful affair of its kind ever held in New Castle. None was ever held prior to yesterday. "We regret the fact that so many were not examined," said Dr. Harper, "but we hope to have another one like it sometime. The crowd that came out yesterday far exceeded our expectations. However the attendance plainly indicates the need of this type of a clinic."

Examinations were given yesterday for heart and chest disease, and also for cancer. Noted specialists in their line were in charge and made the examinations free of charge to many. More exams would have been given had time permitted. Reports of their diagnosis are now being prepared and will be sent to the patient's own doctor. Treatments must be given by them for none were given by the specialists yesterday.

Dr. W. F. Poil, of Butler, specialist in chest diseases; Dr. E. E. Thompson of Washington, Pa., cancer specialist; Dr. H. M. Read, another chest specialist from York, and Dr. E. B. Edle, Uniontown, state renowned heart specialist, conducted the diagnosis yesterday. They were assisted by various nurses among whom were the representatives of local relief organizations and the local state nurses. Miss Anna Hitchcock and Miss Anna Birkner, nurses of the state department of health, has been assigned to the clinic for the day. Besides Miss Hitchcock and Miss Birkner were Miss Kathryn Hite, nurse of the local Red Cross; Miss Agnes McLaughlin and Miss Grace Ackerman, nurses of the state department in this district; Miss Sarah Burkhardt of the Associated Charities and Miss Della Glenn of the Anti-Tuberculosis society.

Other such clinics have been conducted throughout the state by the department of health and each one has gone over with unusual success. The large response given the clinic of yesterday is a substantial criterion of the need of more clinics and medical authorities here hope to some day sponsor another.

Man bets on himself

A good bet
for others

MANY a man has failed to land the job he went after, just because he looked seedy. The Boss looked him over and probably figured that a man who'd let himself slump would let his job slide, too.

"That experience brought me up short," the wise ones declare afterwards. "That very day I started on a whole new scheme of living. Say, you'd never have known me for the same man six months later. I'm betting on myself now, all right. So is the outfit I'm working for."

"There are thousands of people in this condition. Half-hearted. Down on their luck. And don't quite know why. Yet, the answer is so simple. A slowed-up, sluggish system—an excess of poisons in the body."

"Regular treatments with Nujol start things functioning again as they should. Nujol not only keeps an excess of body poisons from forming (we all have them), but aids in their removal."

Start now to take Nujol regularly. Keep it up for the next three months.

At the end of that time we'd be willing to bet your stock has gone way up. That you're worth more to the people you work for—and to yourself.

Nujol can't possibly upset you. For it contains absolutely no medicine or drugs. Nujol was perfected by the Nujol Laboratories, 26 Broadway, New York. Sold in sealed packages only. Get a bottle today.

Many Proposals About Fishing

Large Number Of Bills Before Legislature Of Interest To Anglers

ONE WOULD PERMIT FISHING ON SUNDAY

(From News Bureau)
(State Capital)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—At least a half dozen bills are now before the House committee on Fisheries of interest to anglers. These bills do most anything from imposing a $5 license fee for the propagation of gold fish to permitting fishing on Sunday with one rod and two hooks.

One of the bills takes from the Fish Commission and transfers to the proposed Department of Revenue to fee collecting functions. A separate fish fund is to be retained in the State Treasury.

There are two bills already introduced in the House making changes in the legal length of brook trout. At present the size is six inches and the two bills would increase it by an inch. Representative Fockler, Cambria, in his bill reduces the length of the season. His bill would have the season open on April 30 instead of April 15.

Fockler also would reduce from 28 to 22 inches the legal size for western and northern pike. He also would reduce the number of trout that an angler can have in his possession from 25 to 20. The Cambria county member also has a bill in the House that would prohibit the sale of small mouth bass.

Representative Wilson, of McKean county, is the sponsor of a bill concerning fishing which among other things imposes a license fee of $5 for the propagation of gold fish. He also would raise from fifty cents to $5 the charge for licensing hatcheries of other species.

The Sunday fishing bill has been introduced by Representative Eaches, of Berks. The member from Reading for the last several sessions has sponsored a similar measure. It is always opposed by the Sunday Observance organizations and many sportsmen's groups.

Men At Banquet

Safety Triumph Is Celebrated
By P. O. Company
Workmen

With Common Pleas Judge J. H. C. Lyons as guest speaker and with entertainment by a newsboy trio a notable achievement in safety was celebrated last night by the linemen and meter men of the Penn-Ohio System.

The dinner meeting was held in McKelvey's dining room, Youngstown, dinner music being furnished by the Penn-Ohio orchestra under the direction of Frank Woods.

Two hundred and forty-five men were those in whose honor the dinner was given. These men had made the outstanding record of working for the six-month period ended January 31, without a single hour being lost because of an accident. They comprised five of the seven teams into which the men of the Penn-Ohio electrical department is divided in the continuous accident prevention contest. The group was the largest that has gone for a six-month period without accident since the contest was inaugurated a year and a half ago.

The teams were composed of the line forces of Girard and the meter men of Youngstown, the line and meter men of the Columbiana district, including Salem and Lisbon, the line and meter men of New Castle, the line and meter men of Sharon and the line and meter men of the Zellenople and Ellwood City district.

These 245 men had worked a total of 316,469 men-hours, or the equivalent of one man working eight hours a day, six days a week, for approximately 132 years without losing an hour from his task.

Such an achievement was naturally the cause for congratulation of the workers who had made the record. This was voiced by Frank W. Funk, chief engineer of the Penn-Ohio, who presided, and by C. S. McCalla, vice president and general manager, who spoke of the importance of safety in the electrical department's work, not only to the men who thus safeguarded themselves and one another, but also in maintaining the high standard of Penn-Ohio service and in furthering the good relations of the company with the communities it served.

Judge Lyons also congratulated the men on the fine record they had made. He stressed the value of the safe worker as a good citizen and declared the man who was keen to prevent accidents and to safeguard his fellow workers was certain to be a man who would use good judgment in business and civic affairs.

Action Blocked On Appropriation Bill For Navy

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The legislative wheels of the dying congress were braked to a stop this afternoon when a filibuster in the senate blocked action on the conference report on the $365,000,000 naval appropriation bill.

The report was considered for two hours while senators talked against it. At 1 o'clock, the senate having convened at 11, the report was laid aside so the senate could continue debate on the Glass marketing bill.

Administration leaders had expected to get approval of the report and plainly showed their disappointment. Senator Norris (R) of Nebraska, Senator Heflin (D) of Alabama and Senator Prairie (R) of North Dakota held the floor.

Air Mail Stop Here Assured

Chamber Of Commerce Committee Reports Co-operation Of Business Houses

The establishment of the daily air mail stop for this city is practically assured, states James W. Cole, secretary of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Cole bases his statement on the reports which have been received from the work which is being done by a special committee composed of Robert J. Tully, J. H. Lamb, John Higgin, Charles Cripps and Clarence Kimmel.

This group of men have been canvassing the various business firms of the city and urging that the air mail be used in order that the daily poundage may be raised from three to five pounds.

Committee member Tully has been in contact with the industries, Mr. Lamb with the banks, while Committee member Higgin, Cripps and Kimmel have been taking care of the matter with the retail trade establishments.

As soon as the air mail poundage has been raised the stop will be placed here. This will mean that the city will be a mid-way point on the Cleveland-Pittsburgh daily air mail route.

Members of this special committee report the hearty cooperation of all of the business establishments and firms here.

S. S. Myers Speaks To Kiwanis Club

Tells Of Mysteries Of Science At Noon Hour Session Of Club

The mysteries of the universe, known and studied by a very few, were interestingly revealed to the members of the New Castle Kiwanis Club at their meeting today. The speaker was S. S. Myers, local astronomer.

Before the main address of the day, A. D. Chilton, former secretary of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce was introduced. He made a few remarks pertaining to the keen competition European brick and cement makers are forcing upon the American manufacturers. Chilton suggested a protective tariff be placed upon this import matter, to save U. S. companies from this unnecessary competition.

James W. Cole, present secretary of the Chamber of Commerce here, was another speaker. He spoke on the matter of establishing an air-mail depot here and told the club what the government required before such a depot could be established.

Five pounds of mail per day must be secured before the air-mail will be brought here, Cole said. He also mentioned what is being done to increase the air route shipments to that necessary amount.

In Mr. Myers' address were many things unknown to the average person. "The diameter of the earth," he said—is 200,000 light years. The earth is revolving around the center at the speed of one million miles a day.

"What is taken for granted by scientists today would have been thought obsolete years ago" is a familiar phrase heard so often today," he continued. "But this is not so. Scientists work on facts more than theories."

In conclusion the speaker explained why the first chapter of Genesis in the Bible is scientifically correct, how the story of its creation is correct.

Boy Scout Council Work Is Cited By State Department

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—Department of Forest and Waters officials today cited the forestry work being done by the Scranton Boy Scout Council as an example which they believe could be followed with profit by other such organizations throughout the state.

The Scranton scouts have a camp house of 441 acres at Goose Pond in southern Wayne County all of which is at present included in an auxiliary state game refuge by agreement with state game commission.

By a cooperative agreement between the Boy Scout Council and the district office of the Department of Forest and Waters a management plan was drawn up for the handling of this 441 acres.

Plans were agreed upon by which it is believed will insure a sustained yield of timber on the tract so far as is possible with such a small area. To facilitate ease in handling the area was divided into five compartments with separate records kept on each.

A tentative rotation of 120 years was chosen. For the first ten years the principal object will be to conduct a series of improvement cuttings which will leave the area in the best condition for finally placing it on a sustained and normal yield basis.

Every woman with gray, faded or streaked hair is entitled to do something about it, for it is every woman's birthright to retain her youthfulness and charm as long as she can. When a woman mentions gray hair to me, I don't hesitate to advise the use of a restorer and I recommend sage tea and sulphur.

A brew of common garden sage, when properly combined with sulphur, restores gray hair to its original color, lustre and beauty. So perfectly does it do the work that its use is undetectable. You may either prepare the mixture at home or buy it already prepared and ready to use. Wyeth's Sage & Sulphur is the name of the prepared article and it costs only 75c a bottle at druggists. Hence there's no need of your bothering to prepare the mixture yourself.

You simply moisten a comb or soft brush with it and draw it through your hair, one strand at a time. The very first application banishes the gray and one or two more sees the hair beautifully restored to its original life and color. One would be surprised if she or he knew of the thousands who use this preparation.

Commissions Are Proposed

Many Matters Would Be Referred to Commission-ers By Legislature

ONE WOULD EXAMINE WATER OF SPRINGS

HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—Bills proposing commissions covering a wide range of subjects such as examining the waters of Bedford Springs to one for the regulation of horse racing have been introduced into the legislature. Several existing bodies created by past sessions would be continued for further consideration of their subjects in other measures now in the legislative hopper.

Creation of commissions is one way for the general assembly to defer consideration of many pressing questions. In other instances the commissions really do much constructive work such as the joint commission for the construction of the Philadelphia-Camden bridge.

The 1929 legislature is being asked to continue the salary survey commission, the crimes commission and the hearing and appeals commission. All three of these bodies have submitted reports of their studies made since the 1927 session. Bills also have been introduced carrying into effect some of their recommendations.

Representative Wright of Bedford is the sponsor of a bill to create a commission of five members to examine the spring waters at Bedford Springs. This commission would ascertain the medicinal value of the spring and report to the 1931 session. The bill appropriates $1000 toward paying the expenses of the body.

Perhaps one of the most important commissions proposed is one to codify the laws relating to the first and second class townships of the state. This bill would create a body of ten members, three from first class townships, three from second class townships and two each from the senate and house. It provides for an appropriation of $15,000 to pay expenses. After passing two readings in the house it was sent back to the appropriations committee.

Among other commissions proposed before the legislature are: Battle of Germantown, domestic relations, Flag Ship Niagara, Erie harbor, horse racing, commission to secure site in Philadelphia for a new supreme-superior court building, Pennsylvania memorial, Albert Gallatin homestead and non-poisonous gas for homes.

Timber Cutting Fails To Reduce Supply

DENVER, Feb. 27.—Despite a fifty per cent increase of timber cut from national forests of Colorado, Wyoming and South Dakota in 1928, only one fourth of the available wood products were utilized, according to a report by Allen S. Peck, district forester.

Because of the great increase in sales during 1928, foresters are looking forward to the time when all national forest areas will be put to the utmost cultivation. With careful methods, the forests could be made to produce much more timber than at present.

During 1928, a total of 146,113,000 board feet of timber products was taken from national forests of the region included in the three states.

EAT AND EXERCISE ENOUGH
Eat varied foods enjoyably sweetened, and exercise

"People ought to get out into the air," said a famous health authority, when we asked him to give us the facts about exercise and diet.

"Recommend walking," he said, "and golf, tennis and fishing—anything that gives people enjoyable exercise in the open."

"Exercise that is a duty," he said, "becomes a hardship and is soon abandoned. Have an outdoor hobby that takes you outdoors each day, and gives you pleasure."

"We believe that enjoyment tends to improve the whole physiology of the body."

Discussing the subject of diet, this health authority said, "Sugar is the vehicle of roughage, mineral salts and fruit vitamins. Sugar moderates the fruit acids and makes the fruits palatable. At least 90% of constipation is due to a lack of roughage. Eat a raw and a cooked vegetable, also a raw and a cooked fruit each day. Rotate them with season, price and taste."

Hogs Can't Learn To Obey Law, Is Legislator's View

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 27.—The question of whether hogs could be taught that they were violating the laws by "running at large" was raised in the state senate Tuesday by Senator Wright Huges, Ohio county.

A bill pending in the senate provides that "it shall be unlawful for any hogs to run at large." Huges suggested an amendment to read, "It shall be unlawful for any persons to permit any hogs to run at large" and explained he was certain hogs could not be compelled to obey a law. Senator John Q. Hutchinson, sponsor of the measure, objected to the amendment; and it was withdrawn.

Large Chorus Choir Of 60

Crowd In Sacred Song

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 27.—A large crowd attended the third of the Union Evangelistic services Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the United Presbyterian church.

Rev. L. J. Baker had charge of the service, and opened with a prayer. The sermon of the evening was delivered by Rev. Robert Little of the Methodist church on "John the Baptist sending messengers to Christ to ask if he really were Christ." He went on to tell of the thrill that John received when he was finally convinced that the fact was true. He brought his theme into everyday life by the statement that so many Christian church goers have missed this thrill because they have never really investigated the fact but have taken matters too much for granted. He cited the incident of the opening of the great rail-road tunnel through the Cascade mountains some time ago, when it was broadcast over the radio. There was disappointment in the announcer's voice when he went through the train of people who were selected to ride through on the maiden trip of the train, because they did not seem to get a thrill out of the event. Rev. Little's opinion was that the workmen and engineers who had blasted and worked the tunnel to its ultimate stage of perfection could have ridden through, they would indeed have received a real thrill.

Fifteen minutes of sacred music was enjoyed and Rev. Maxwell contributed an excellent baritone solo. Tonight Rev. Little will be in charge of the service.

High School Team Wins Third Debate

ELLWOOD CITY, Feb. 27.—Members of the local debating team of the high school met the negative team from the Ambridge high school in the auditorium of the Methodist church for an argument on the subject, "Resolved: that the Congress should provide a Department of Education in the President's Cabinet."

At the end of the debating there was a unanimous decision in favor of the affirmative and local team. The members of the team were Miss Eva Perillo, Walter Veon, with John Pastin as alternate. The judges were Miss Sara Dinsmore, Miss Marjorie Rhodes and N. P. Nelson, all of the New Castle school teaching staff. Prof. A. K. Thompson presided.

Monday evening, March 4, the local negative team goes to Aliquippa on the same question. March 5 the affirmative team debates the same question with the Beaver negative team here. If the local team continues to win the decision on this important question there will be nothing left for the President to do but put in a Department of Education in his cabinet, it seems.

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

By J. Carroll Mansfield

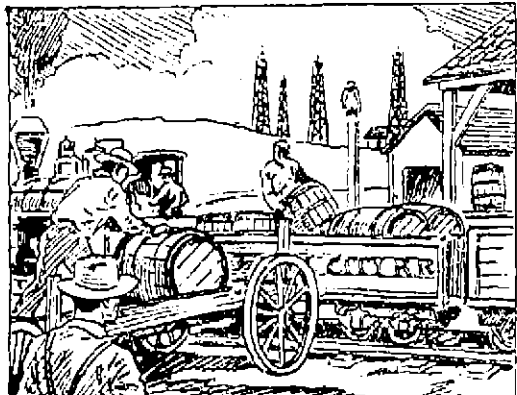

The Story Of American Industry
Petroleum (Part Three)—The Transportation Of Oil

Drake's discovery of petroleum in 1859 changed the neighborhood of oil creek, Pennsylvania, from an isolated section of small farms into a bustling community teeming with oil prospectors almost overnight. Poor farmers on whose little farms oil had been struck suddenly found themselves millionaires. At the same time a fever of speculation in oil swept the entire country.

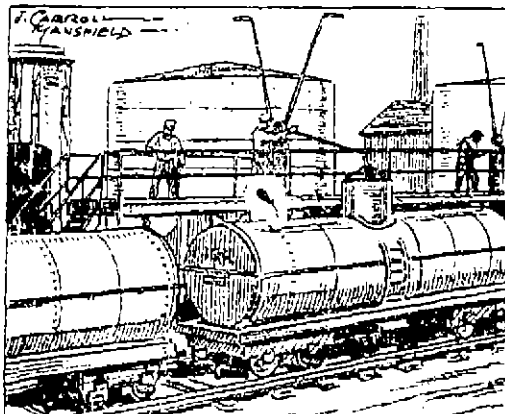

© 1928 McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

At first the barrels of oil were hauled by packhorses or in wagons from the wells, over the rough mountain roads, to oil creek. Here they were loaded on rude flatboats and carried by way of the Allegheny river, floating downstream with the current, to Pittsburgh, whence they were shipped by rail to various parts of the country.

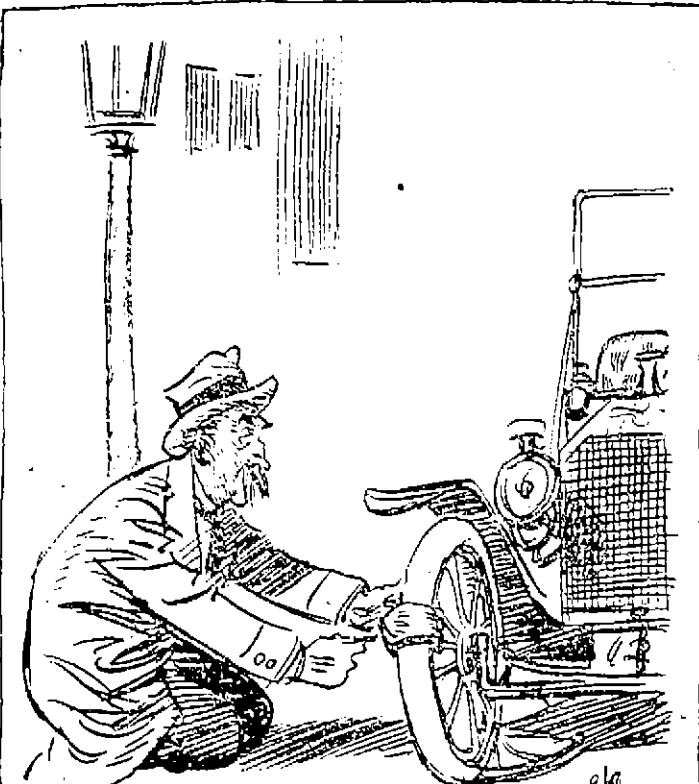

Later, as production at the wells kept pace with the growing demand for petroleum, railways were built from Pittsburgh to the oil fields. For years the barrels of oil were transported in open cars.

Today crude oil from the wells and field storage tanks is conveyed to the refineries through long pipe lines. The refined oil is then carried to distributing points by rail in steel tank cars.

NEW CASTLE DEFEATS FARRELL 24 TO 15

Locals Display Brilliant Form

New Castle High School Floor Team Takes Measure Of Farrell High

OSTROSKY-VAGO STARS OF GAME

By "BUGS" WALTHER

PLAYING a fine brand of basketball in all four periods, the New Castle High School Floor Team last evening took the measure of the strong Farrell High team by a score of 24 to 15. It was the second straight win for the Bridesbaugh coached combination on the same court. Nine victories have been chalked up by the red and black quintet this year.

Locals Play Fine Game
New Castle High deserved that verdict last night. The red and black floor artists played real basketball. The Bridesbaugh machine came through with a fine offensive attack that netted eight baskets, and held Farrell to five baskets. So tight a defense did the locals place around their hoop that Farrell did not score a field goal in the entire first half of the battle. Captain Tony Ostrosky and Abe Vago were the leading scorers of the game, with three buckets apiece.

In the matter of foul-tossing the New Castles gave a very good account of themselves, caging eight out of 10 attempts. Farrell made five out of 11 free throws. In the first, second and fourth periods New Castle had a decided edge on the invaders from Mercer county.

Vago Starts Scoring
Abe Vago started the scoring for New Castle with a basket after about three minutes of play. Nugent caged a foul for Farrell, making the score 2 to 0. Ostrosky heaved a long one from about the middle of the floor and New Castle led, 4 to 1, at the end of the first quarter. The entire first period was fast, with both teams playing a cautious guarding game.

McAuley and Ostrosky annexed baskets in rapid order at the start of the second quarter to give New Castle a lead of 8 to 1. Ostrosky then made good on a pair of fouls and the locals showed out in front, 10 to 1. Bobby made a foul for Farrell and Nugent made one near the end of the half. New Castle was ahead, 11 to 3, at half time. Farrell had plenty of shots at the basket, but failed to make them count for points. McAuley and Ciccone played great defensive basketball in the first half, making it necessary for the visitors to shoot from mid-court. Very seldom did Farrell get near the basket. Coach Bridesbaugh made one substitution in the first half, sending DiThomas in for Weir.

Farrell Battles
At the start of the third quarter the Ganapolski coached outfit took on new life and started a rally that resulted in their first basket of the game. After Blier had caged the first field goal for the Mercer combats Bobby and Nugent followed suit and the Farrell team started to creep up on New Castle. With the score 19 to 11 in favor of New Castle Ostrosky pulled the feature play of the evening by caging one from the center of the floor. The third quarter ended with New Castle leading, 21 to 11. New Castle had outscored Farrell 11 to 8, in the period. Nugent tallied for Farrell at the start of the fourth and final stanza. DiThomas went back in for Weir, the latter having returned to the floor for the third period. Ostrosky caged a foul and Vago came through with the field goal that gave New Castle a lead of 24 to 13. Bobby caged the final basket for Farrell just before the whistle blew ending the game. Smith and Culbertson were used as substitutes by Coach Bridesbaugh, replacing Ciccone and DiThomas late in the fourth quarter. The entire New Castle team deserves credit for the brand of basketball put up last night. The Farrell High team is rated as one of the strongest in Mercer county this year, but they were no match for the locals.

The Summary:

New Castle High Girls Win, 25-20

New Castle High Girls' Team Nose Out Farrell High In Good Game Tuesday

PATTON-CARSON ARE BIG STARS

By "BUGS"

The New Castle high school girls' varsity basketball team defeated the strong Farrell high maidens 25 to 20 in a good game played at senior high gym on Tuesday night. The contest was a preliminary to the boys' game. Taking an early lead the New Castle lassies held the advantage throughout the game. The score at half time favored New Castle 15 to 7. The playing of Miss Ruth Patton and Miss Cowmeadow at the forwards for New Castle was very good, this pair caging seven baskets between them. Miss Laura Carson at center played a fine game, as did Hill, Kaufmann and Krestel.

Miss Fowler and Miss Sarcinella carried the burden for Farrell high. The game was extremely interesting and hard fought in every quarter. Farrell tried hard to overtake the locals, but fell short five points.

Coach Ruth Boyd was well pleased with the performance of the red and black girls in their upset of the Farrell high maidens. Farrell high girls have one of the strongest teams in Mercer county, and have had fine success this year. The visitors were plainly not in a class with the Boyd coached machine.

The Summary:

"Babe" O'Donovan Stars For Titans

GLENN "BABE" O'DONOVAN

(Special To The News)
NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 27.—Glenn "Babe" O'Donovan, forward on Coach John Lawther's Westminster College Titans, has been playing "Babe" ball in every contest; has been outstanding, but his performance against Geneva here was perhaps the greatest exhibition of floor work and scoring ability demonstrated for local fans this season. O'Donovan is playing his third year on the United Presbyterian team and it is undoubtedly his best. He also played football, holding down a halfback post on the 1927 grid team. His brother, Roy, starred for Duquesne university for four years, but many think "Babe" more of an all-around performer than Roy.

Sharkey And Stribling Clash At Miami Tonight

WILLIAM "YOUNG" STRIBLING

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 27.—In the tropically colorful setting of Flamingo Park, with its background of swaying palm trees, Jack Sharkey of Boston and W. L. (Young) Stribling of Macon, Ga., will battle tonight before the most distinguished, if not the wealthiest, audience that ever witnessed a prize fight. The bout is scheduled for ten rounds to a referee's decision and Sharkey is expected to enter the ring an 8 to 5 favorite.

It will be an intriguing spectacle from many angles. It will be the first appearance of Jack Dempsey in the role of promoter, and a successful one at that, for the box office receipts are expected to run up over the $350,000 mark. Then, too, the bout has whipped up sectional interest to fever pitch, what to see their idol exchange blows with the slugging sailor from the North.

Thousands of Millions
For sheer class, in the way of a fight crowd, tonight's outdoor event will surpass anything of its kind on record. A thousand or two millionaires, many of America's foremost celebrities and bejeweled society women will be among the 35,000 fans sitting in at the desk, the cakewalk or whatever it may be. No one can figure either Sharkey or Stribling. Their bout may be a dud or a thriller, but, somehow, it has caught the imagination of the public.

Special trains rolled into Miami this morning with heavy quotas of fight fans. Hundreds came by boat from Havana and from Miami island. Thousands came by automobile, and they are still coming. The special trains came from New York, Washington, Atlanta, New Orleans, Augusta, Cincinnati, Chicago, Kansas City and other cities. Every spectator who passes into flag-bedecked Flamingo Park will have a good view of the proceedings, so compactly is the new octagonal-shaped arena built. Even the last row seats are within easy eye distance of the ring. Surrounding the ring are 12,500 floor seats and the eight cornered incline that rises gradually on all sides takes care of 22,000 more.

New Castle Wins Over Sharon 3-2

Several Hundred Witness Revival Of Roller Polo Here

New Castle defeated Sharon three to two in roller polo at the Jolly bowl last night before several hundred fans who turned out to see a revival of the floor sport in this city.

Sharon earned a point lead in the first portion of the game when Zippi shot a goal. Vagus tied the score however, when he goaled the ball for New Castle.

In the second period Benrick made victory look almost certain for Sharon when he drove the ball inside the New Castle net after a hot scrimmage.

With about five minutes to play in the last fifteen minutes Vagus shot his second point, and Ryan followed it up with another goal giving New Castle a three to two edge.

Sharon tried hard to even the score but the whistle blew before the Sharon team could score another point. The lineup:

New Castle: Vagus, Ryan, Benrick, Zippi, Miller, HB, Shanley, Erwin, GK, Phillips.
Sharon: Vagus, Ryan, Benrick, Zippi, Miller, HB, Shanley, Erwin, GK, Phillips.
Referee: Chapman; Scorer: Cennell; Timekeeper: Griffith.

Coast Grid Tactics For Purple Squad

EVANSTON, Feb. 27.—Pacific coast football tactics, especially those made famous by Coach Glenn Warner of Stanford university, may be expected to play a big part at Northwestern university next year.

Coach Dick Hanley of the Purple squad has just returned from a two-months trip on the coast where he conferred with leading Pacific coaches in quest for new ideas for his mid-western eleven.

A more effective kicking game at Northwestern this fall is one of the plans of Hanley and he is said to have developed a number of new booting plays in cooperation with Coach Warner.

Army To Send Track Team To Drake Events

Announcement that the Army track and field stars will be among the contenders at the Drake games was made in a letter from Major Fleming, athletic director at West Point.

Westminster Reserves To Play Here Tonight

By "BUGS"

Tonight at the Y. M. C. A. floor the basketball fans of New Castle will have an opportunity of seeing just what Coach Johnny Lawther has at Westminster College in the way of excellent reserve strength. The Castletons of the City League will tackle the Westminster Reserves in a game that should prove very interesting. The Third U. P. team of the Church League battles the Knickerbockers of the City League in the preliminary game at 8 o'clock.

Three More Games On Westminster Card; Grove City Friday

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Feb. 27.—With 12 victories out of 14 games played, Coach John Lawther's Westminster College Titans near the end of another highly successful court season.

Setting a fast pace in the tri-state district last year, when they won 17 out of 20 contests, Lawther's crew has remained at the top this year despite the fact that favorites of other years have fallen by the wayside. This consistent play on the part of the United Presbyterians is an excellent commentary on the coaching ability of Lawther. Sports writers of the district have been loud in their praise of his teams and the method with which he handles them.

But three games remain on this year's court schedule. Boy Thorns Grove City passes, traditional rivals for honors in the section, today here Friday night of this week and a return game with the Lawther crew. This contest, always a high draw of interest, should be another thriller.

The Groves are pointing to this game with hopes of avenging the overwhelming defeat suffered at Westminster in an early-season game. Coach Thorns has scouted the Titans twice in recent games and plans to stop the Titan scoring spree.

Duquesne March 5
The high point of the tri-state conference race will be the return game with Duquesne at Pittsburgh March 5. Chick Davies and his rather disappointing Dukes aim to avenge the early-season extra-period defeat suffered at New Wilmington. The Bluff quintet, a essentially the same one which won most of its games last year, just why they have not won more contests this year is a mystery. It will be characteristic of Davies and his crew, however, to stage a remarkable comeback against the Titans.

Thiel March 7
The Dukes threw a scare into the Titans in the closing seconds of the game. They are capable of playing great ball on occasion, and March 5 is bound to be one of the occasions if other years are any criterion.

Thiel March 7
The season closes with the Thiel game at New Wilmington on Thursday, March 7. This game was originally scheduled for March 9, but was changed recently so that the court season for both schools could be ended sooner.

While the Lutherans have not had much success with basketball this year, they have extended every team's net.

Frisko Grande Served In Uncle Sam's Navy

Philippine Started Career In Philippines, Voyaged To Frisco, Joined Navy And Won Flyweight Title; Has Fought Many Topnotchers; Eddie Ruttman To Test Southpaw Smallwood; Several Other Good Prospective Battles Arranged

By ED. FRITZ

Uncle Sam's navy has produced many good fighters, a sea and a ring, among them being Jack Sharkey, No. 1, who battled Jeffries and the rest of the topnotchers a score years ago, and Sharkey No. 2, who fights Willie Stribling at Miami tonight. But all of Uncle Sam's good fighters have not been heavyweights—frinstance the little brown Philippine flyweight, Frisko Grande. Yes, sir, fans and fanatics, Frisko cast his lot with Uncle Sam's navy years ago and is the better for having done so.

Frisko Grande first saw the light of day in a hut in the Tall Grass section of the Philippines, and when he was no larger than a knee visited Manila. Despite his tender years his heart was stout and he earned a few dollars by battling in preliminaries.

Off for America! Seeing the mad way in which American tourists, officials and service men spent their money, and having heard from other Filipinos who had been in the States of the quick manner in which Pancho Villa had amassed fame, he made up his mind to "see America."

He worked his way to Frisco and entered the preliminaries. Later on he yearned for the sea and after planning at the sprightly, uniformed figures of sailors aboard the "sea dogs" he hiked to a recruiting station and went under the management of the W. K. Udon Sam.

That trip made Frisko Grande. The rigid discipline, the duties he performed and the early to bed and early to arise, plus the study, made his body physically perfect and his mind sharp, and when he had served three years he was honorably discharged and ready for the grid.

Pugilism is a grind, and don't let anyone say that it isn't. One must keep his body tuned up physically and his mind clean if he wishes to succeed, even to a fair degree, and those who do not last about as long as a candy rabbit in a fire.

Won Flyweight Title With the flyweight championship of the United States navy clutched in his hand he resumed his career in the States, and since then has fought Frenchy Belanger, Tommy Paul and a lot of other brilliant bulls of the squared circle.

He took the decision from Blas Rodriguez in 10 rounds, won once from Corporal Izzy Schwartz, defeated Eddie Jarbis, the British champ, outpointed Eddie Mischler, drew with Tommy Ryan, lost in 10 rounds to Frankie Genaro, was technically knocked by Kid Chocolate and beat Frankie Garcia.

His opponent here Monday night is the well-known and pugilistically prominent Willie Davies, who has been voting in Charlelot and punching in New Castle, New York, Los Angeles, Canadian cities and other points; in fact, most of the more prominent cities.

Davies Is Popular Wilbe has boxed several times in New Castle and is well liked. Grande is a fast flyweight, punches short and stiff, and it is probable that more punches will be tossed in this fight than have been delivered in two or three middleweight bouts put together.

The flyweights are popular here because they are generally all action and class. They hit plenty hard for their size, but none of them have been knocked out, and on account of this Davies and Grande will try to get a record as a "knocker-out" Monday night.

Chet Smallwood, the southpaw fool 'em kid, will take on Eddie Ruttman, iron-jawed 133-pounder, in the six-round semi-final. Eddie's jaw is as steel-like as was the arm of Walter Johnson and other pitchers of bygone days.

Chet to Box Eddie Last week Chet agreed to substitute when Pete Cannell tried to escape fighting U. S. Campionieri. In fact, he was en route here when U. S. said: "Chet's too tough," and he was telegraphed to get off the cars and go home when the commission forced Cannell to battle.

And what a fight Cannell put up. A good one, every step of the way. Eddie Ruttman has boxed here and has pleased, and with Chet coming in from Terre Haute hoping to make a showing that he can get a main bout, the fans can look for action.

Tommy O'Leary, the coal miner, has had a run of success here. But he will have plenty of work to do if he wants to win over Ki Goldman in a six-round bout. Ki is one of the better class of 125-pounders and really looks on paper better than O'Leary.

New Faces in Bowl But the Irish fight best when the fighting is hardest, and Tom, having been hardened by tough knuckers around the coal breakers and mines of Luzerne county, more especially Pringle Hill, hopes to give the Jewish boy a real battle.

Jimmy Marlowe has never boxed here. He is a stalemate of the Fighting Pole, Nick Poils. He will take on Harry Russell of Fayette City in a four-rounder, and as they weigh 158 pounds, there will be many hard swings delivered, some of which will land, others which won't.

Another four-rounder is in the making. George Tomoskey, brother to Andy, who boxed Carl Cavelli here, wants to tackle Roy Minter, who is the bantamweight champion of New Castle. Tomoskey is the 116-pound king of Beaver Valley, hence a demand account of Davies' return against the Filipino there is considerable interest in the battle. Since his departure Willie has been going over big in Canada, chiefly in Toronto, and recently took on Howard Mayberry and outpointed him in a red-hot fight at McKeesport.

It is rumored that Hoover will smash a precedent and appoint a farmer to be secretary of agriculture. These are terrible times—The Tulsa Daily World

Paavo Nurmi And Ritola Race Soon

The three premier two millers have been invited to compete and it is understood that Ritola and Lemond have tentatively accepted.

Remember This Fight?

1913-LEACH CROSS FLATTENS JOE MANDOT

Joe Mandot, the southern flash, was well along on his campaign for the lightweight championship of the world when deonair Tommy Walsh, his handsome manager, made a hideous error. This was early in 1913, when Walsh decided that a bout with Dr. Leach Cross, the New York dentist, would drag out the Mardi Gras customers in great numbers if Cross could be persuaded to fight in New Orleans.

The doctor could—and did. A neat little 15-rounder was carded and tickets were kicked up to $5, a top price in those days.

Walsh figured his boy would look good against Cross and he did—for a while.

With a packed house for this lightweight natural Joe Mandot stepped away to a nice early lead. This southern boy was clever. He could jab and feint, use fancy footwork, and knew all the little tricks of the game. He could even hit a trifle, as he proved when he floored Cross in the fifth round.

But they grow tough in New York's ghetto, and the tooth puller refused to be stopped by one knockdown. He kept after Mandot relentlessly, then, in the eighth, he spilled a long left that collected with Mandot's button.

The home boy never recovered from that blow. He lasted through the eighth and ninth, but was so far gone in the tenth that Walsh tossed in the towel.

Yankee Stars Equal Scotch Soccer Players

(International News Service) ST. LOUIS, Feb. 27.—American professional soccer players are equal to the Scotch stars in native ability but because the latter play the game with their brains, as well as their feet, teams here would hardly prove a match for the junior teams on the other side of the ocean.

This is the opinion of Robert McMillan, former star of the Mary Hill Football club of Glasgow, a team which won five cups in but a single season. McMillan, since coming to the United States, eight years ago, refereed games and coached several teams.

All Set For Fame

By QUIN HALL.

In this corner we have the garrulous gob from Boston, Jack Sharkey—

And in that corner we have the pride of the South, Young Stribling—

or words to that effect.

Today is the day for the big push and pull to be staged at Flamingo Park in Miami Beach and the resort city in the palm tree belt will be cluttered up with visiting firemen and folks of importance and no importance from the far sections of the country. Political figures, moving picture luminaries, butter and egg men, famous bootleggers and no doubt One-Eyed Genesly will be elbow to elbow with the ordinary people as they flock down the avenues leading to the spacious arena provided by the Madison Square Garden Corporation and Jack Dempsey for the latest attempt to make boxing popular in Florida.

Special trains offering attractive rates, have hurried people in from important corners of the United States, the lobbies of the hotels at Miami and Miami Beach are well jammed with fight fans, the desire to talk real estate has been temporarily shelved and everything awaits the tap of the first gong.

The advance sales have been up to expectation and it looks as if the final rush for tickets today would make Dempsey's venture as a boxing promoter a financial success. And every one is pulling for the Manassas Mauler to make good in his efforts to put over the show planned by his pal, Tex Rickard before his death. Florida with its horde of winter visitors should support the entertainment. Rickard had figured that it was worth the "shot" and if it was a success he planned to have several shows every winter.

The Georgian is a great favorite in the south and with the show staged in Florida, Rickard figured that the southern fans would follow their idol to Miami and help build up the size of the gate.

Sharkey naturally is one of the best drawing cards in the heavy-weight division. While he's touted an in-an-outter he must realize the prestige that would go with a victory in this start and when he is in a fighting mood he is a bad guy to start throwing gloves at. A decisive victory for the gob would put him on the crest of the wave with a couple of lucrative outdoor engagements—possibly one with Dempsey—staring him in the face for the summer months. A defeat will set him back considerably.

A victory for Stribling on the other hand will put him in an advantageous spot. While the southerner has never seemed to make good in his starts in New York he has well over a hundred knockouts to his credit and it is said that he has improved tremendously in the last few bouts. If he will avoid his wrestling tactics and stand up and fight the Boston sailor it looks as if he had a sweet chance to finish ahead despite the fact that the gob undoubtedly will be the favorite. Both scrappers have been accused of being weak hearted, but often such accusations are made without sufficient grounds. It is true however that they both have been created—or discredited—with some terrible showings. They have fought like palookas and they have fought like champions. This goes for both of them.

So it would seem that the crowd at Miami are in for a hot battle or a mess of carnemort. In other words it can be a swell race or either of both of them can pull a Reigels and run in the wrong direction.

the Hoover inauguration next Monday and a short session is expected. Only three bills are listed for final action
although the Kunkle measure to stiffen penalties for defaulting husbands who do not abide by court support orders also is being carried.

In the senate as in the house all important legislation will have to wait until after the return of the members from the Hoover inaugural. Governor John S. Fisher last night signed the bill appropriating $15,000 for the expenses of the trip.

With a session already shortened
by inability to hold a Monday night session the chances that any important measures will be considered next week also seem remote.
The entire legislative program—
roads, revenue, salaries, election reform, administrative and departmental legislation—all will wait until the last six weeks of the session.

Sponsors Work Hard.
It is in that period when calendars are jammed and human ability makes impossible a close check on every activity of both houses that sponsors of so-called "pet" measures work their hardest to get them from committee
and hurried along unsuspecting routes
at least as far as the governor's desk.
That too is the time when professional lobbyists get in their best strokes. Early plans for the present session forecast activity at the beginning of the session which would make impossible such a jam at the end. That hope now has been delin-quently abandoned.

"Horseless Carriage" Is Displayed At Show

With the engine under the turtle back, a stick for a steering wheel, and a lever on the seat to control the play engine which boasts one spark plug car manufactured in 1900 and one of the remaining pioneers in the automobile industry will be on display at the New Castle Automobile show which takes place at The Cathedral
this week.
The old car sits proudly beside the huge sedans within which you could easily place the pioneer buggy and still have room for six people.
What makes the little auto seem even more ridiculous beside our present day cars is that it is being displayed with them. Generally these cars are displayed alone in some corner of a museum and one does not get to see the comparison so clearly.
George Rodgers, member of the dealers association had the car brought from Pittsburgh especially for the occasion in order that the development in the automobile industry
in the past few years may be seen.
It is said that the price of the machine or "horseless carriage" was $2-00 when it appeared on the market.
It is almost as great a curiosity now
as it was then.

Placing Auto Show Cars Dangerous Job

Slip Would Mean Plunge Over Bank At Cathedral; No Accidents Occur

Down over a plank platform constructed spirally across the near pre-ciple of The Cathedral west lawn,
through a hall way which is wide enough—barely wide enough—to permit a car to pass, into The Cathedral kitchen, twisted about with a roller jack, towed in this manner into the dining room, and then pushed up bridges of signs into the wing rooms and ball room.
This is the route that the automo-

Plea Made For Erie Murderers Awaiting Death

Counsel For Three Erie Negro Slayers Makes Dramatic Plea To Pardon Board

GUILTY OF SLAYING ERIE GROCERY MAN

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Feb. 27.—Sub-normal mental development was the sole argument advanced today before the state board of pardons to save three Erie county negro youths from the electric chair. The three were convicted of the murder of Pellegrino Cocco, an Italian store keeper, they shot during a robbery.
William J. Carney, counsel for the men said they are not insane but that all have the mentality of seven-year-old children. He blamed their conviction on the fact that they are negroes and that they had killed a white man. Carney admitted readily to the board details of crimes in which they had been implicated not only before the Cocco killing but afterwards in the period prior to their arrest.
District Attorney Otto Herbst who opposed commutation asserted that the color of the youths had nothing to do with their conviction for murder in the first degree and pointed out that the state supreme court upheld the verdicts.

"If the law is to mean anything, if it is not to be a futile and mutable
code, then it must protect a citizen asleep in his bedroom," Herbst said.
He charged that a murderer whose death sentence has been commuted to life imprisonment is always a potential danger in prison or out and that only by the death penalty can society protect its members against crimes such as the Cocco killing.
